Fun Alley Smashing Plates needs China!

Do you have old chipped pieces of china in the back of your cupboards? Any broken bits of crockery will do - no handles, chips and cracks are fine.

Any items can be dropped off at the loading dock - label the box or bag Fun Alley Smashing China. Nothing like a Spring Clean to empty those cupboards of unwanted and unused china!

Fun Alley also needs old tennis balls.

Homemade Cake Stall

Since 1940, the tradition of the American Tea is to bring a cake and buy a cake.
If you would like to BAKE something for the stall, HOST a Baking Day, or JOIN a Baking Day, please contact Sandie at sandie@hogarth-scott.com or Rachel at rachelfennessy@gmail.com

Thanks!

The American Tea Second Hand Bookstall is now collecting books.

Popular authors, Cookbooks and Children's books, CD's...less than 5 years' old please (We cannot accept text books, dictionaries, encyclopedias or magazines.)

We are collecting fiction, non-fiction, autobiographies, biographies and history books for both adults and children for sale at the American Tea. Books which sell well are popular fiction (aka "airport novels" and chic-lit). Award winning novels are also good sellers. But please, we can only accept donations of books LESS THAN 5 YEARS OLD, including cookbooks.

We cannot accept text books, encyclopaedias, atlases or magazines.

Drop off: School loading dock in William Street, North Sydney.

Please contact Katrina Dickson if you have any questions (M 0422 650 972).

Time to clean out your books!
