A Garden Fete in aid of the Sports Ground was held at the School on Saturday, October 11, and was a tremendous success from every point of view.

We congratulate J. Cadwallader and H. T. Boazman on their selection in the All-Schools 1st XI, and A. H. Mac-lachlan and R. Harris in the 2nd XI.

We are very glad indeed to have Mr C. H. Kaepell back from active service on the Staff once more.

The 2nd XI is to be congratulated upon securing the 2nd grade premiership in the G.P.S., by winning all their matches in the year.

The annual School concert will take place in the Coliseum Hall on December 12th.

This term the internal sport of the School has been re-organised and the House System introduced. The results have been very gratifying, and it is evident that the rivalry between Houses has already stirred up a spirit of keenness throughout the School. The system aims at catering for the needs of every boy in the School with respect to sport.

Open Sunday this term fell on 9th November. The preacher was the Bishop of Goulburn.

We are glad to welcome back Mr. Dixon, who has been on active service for some years, and who arrived in Sydney on Nov. 28. Capt. Dixon will be ready to resume his work next term. Mr. A. C. Ross, an old master, is on his way back, and will rejoin the Staff next term.

Mr. A. R. Browne, who left us about a year ago to take up the position of Director of Education in Tonga, and who has resigned that position, will rejoin the Staff next term.

Open Sunday next term will be on March 21, the preacher being the Rev. Canon Beck.

The University Camp will be held this year at Narrabeen from January 22 to January 29. Particulars may be had from Mr. Hedges.

Extensive alterations and additions will be made to the School buildings during vacation. The main school building will be raised another storey, and a new chemical laboratory will be created.

The Memorial Cricket Ground was officially opened on September 27 by Miss Dibbs. To celebrate the occasion a cricket match Old Boys v. School was played, and was won by the School. The fete (which was held on October 11, for the purpose of providing funds for the development of the ground realised the sum of £605. On another page will be found a detailed account of these events.

A new foundation prize has been given by Mr. Hunter Stephenson to be called "The Hunter Stephenson Prize for Mathematics." It is to be awarded to the boy who has the best results in mathematics in the Intermediate Examination. In the event of equality, the record for the whole year is to be taken into account.

Next year the three term system will be introduced into all N.S.W. non-departmental schools. Our first term will begin on February 10th at 2 p.m., New boys must present themselves on the day before at 9.30 a.m. The first term will end on May 7th; second term begins May 31st, and ends August 27. The third term begins September 13, and ends December 10.

A silver cup has been given by Mr. J. Percy Hardy, in memory of his son, the late P. A. Hardy, for competition in cricket. This cup is to be held for the year by the House which is the winner in the competition.

We are asked to call attention to an error which appeared in the prize list on Speech Day. The names of half the boys who passed the Intermediate were inadvertently omitted from the list. As this list was used for Torch-Bearer copy, the mistake was repeated in our last issue. We therefore print, in full the names of successful candidates.

They are: F. E. Alderson, C. A. Alexander, H. A. Ankerson, W. J. Baker, L. G. Bennett, H. T. Boazman, L. H. Bolsdon, F. P. Boundy, H. E. Brissendon, D. G. Brodie, F. D. Brown, A. W. Bruce, B. Burrows, C. R. Chaseling, R. G. Colley, A. H. Crossman, F. E. Dabelle, H. Deane, I. H. Dodds, D. J. Doyle, F. H. Doyle, T. D. Esplin, G. A. Goldsmid, K. C. Hannah, P. A. Hardy, R. G. Harris, F. J. Hill, T. E. Johnson, J. H. Joseland, F. R. Louat, E. Mander-Jones, N. H. Manning, N. D. McIntosh, C. J. Nash, H. T. Micklin, O. G. Oom, J. N. Percival, D. A. Perry, C. W. Pulver, G. C. Reading, L. O. Rutherford, J. H. Saddington, R. R. Sinclair, J. E. Smith, N. J. Symington, A. H. Taylor, P. N. Taylor, W. Valder, G. J. Vaughan, N. C. Vogan, A. H. Ward, N. M. Ware, D. F. Warner, W. G. Wilson, B. W. Windeyer, B. J. Wright, S. A. Wright, J. O. Yates.

A number of ladies and Old Boys interested in the School met at the invitation of Mrs Wilson at Hazelbank-rd., North Sydney, to arrange a dance to raise funds for the Memorial Ground. A committee was formed to organise the dance, and it was decided to hold it in the Sydney Town Hall on Friday, 25th July. They felt sure that apart from the Old Boys, the many friends interested in the School would come forward in sufficient numbers to justify the ambitious undertaking in the largest hall in Sydney.

The dance was very well attended, over 850 people being present, and proved both a social and financial success. It was so enjoyable that the general impression was that it should be repeated annually if only to give Old Boys the means of meeting and renewing old friendships, the opportunities of which are apt to be few in modern life. The net proceeds amounted to £250. Great credit is due to the Ladies and Old Boys of the committee for raising this sum.

Chapel Notes.

Rowing.

ON Dec. 6th the Eric Russell Sinclair Memorial Shed on Looking Glass Bay, Gladesville, will be formally handed over to the School. The shed measures 70ft. by 25ft., carried over high water on piles, consisting of two floors. On the lower are the bathroom, and the boathouse proper, with substantial racks for the boats, opening in front on a 65ft. staging on piles, ramp and pontoon. On the upper floor are a capacious storeroom at the back, a large, well-lighted sleeping room, opening on to a balcony in front. The shed will accommodate comfortably from 24 to 28 persons, which is all that is necessary, even for the Christmas camp. Arrangements have been made to have the cooking done, and the camps will now be centred on our own shed, a boon which all those ever connected with the School rowing will be able to appreciate to the fullest.

On the opening day will be rowed the race for champion fours under the House scheme, on a course from Searle's monument to a line off the front of the shed; also a race for House second crews. The points gained in these races will count in the House championships for the term.

Week-days this term have been given up entirely to the coaching of the House crews, Saturdays being devoted to the School eight and fours. The eight has shaken down rapidly, in spite of unavoidable absences of various members engaged in the L.C. exam, and are already rowing with a good swing, bright catch, and solid leg-drive. The final selections for seats will not be determined until next term after the Christmas camp.

Amongst the younger oarsmen Hadley, Johnson, Sinclair (2), Beer i, Beer ii show signs of becoming proficient, while Boundy, Goldsmid, Roberts, Winderley and Litchfield are also promising.

It was with much regret that the committee found themselves compelled to drop the third House crews. This is because one man cannot unaided get through twelve crews in four working days from 4 to 6 p.m.; and it is a great pity to have had to leave the boys at this time, when there is so much good material available. The House scheme, applied to rowing, will bring forth fruits beyond expectations, if it can be carried out; our record on the river of late years is nothing for a rowing School like ourselves to be proud of, and we must look to our laurels as the field is widening every year, and the chances of any particular crew in the race is being minimised.

To carry the House scheme out in rowing means that young boys will have a chance of learning the gentle art a year or two before they will be called upon to uphold the School's honour at the G.P.S. regatta. In order that this may be accomplished an attempt should be made to obtain the services of at least one, better two, other rowing enthusiasts, whose work is on the same lines as our own. This latter point is most essential, in order that the work may proceed from foundation to capital without having to go back and eradicate faults at any particular stage.

On Saturday, Dec. 6th, the Sinclair Memorial Shed was officially opened by K. Williams, Esq., who handed the key of the shed to Vivers, Captain of Boats, and declared the shed open to the School for use. Mr. Robinson replied in a few words, thanking the donors for the munificent gift. A special steamer carried those interested from Fort Macquarie and back again, there being some 300 or 350 present. A programme of races was also carried out during the afternoon, the competitions being between the various Houses under the new House scheme. The following are the results of the races:—

No. 1 Event—2nd House Crews—final: 1st Hodges' House (Shadforth, Barnett, Mander-Jones, Roberts, str.) 2nd, Robson House (Lloyd, Brad-dock, Sendall, Johnson ii, str.)

Won by three lengths.

No. 2 Event.—House Championship Fours: 1st, Robson House (Murrell, Bell ii, Vogan, Pulver, str., and Griffith, cox.) 2nd, Hodges' House (Osborne, Sinclair ii, Blackmore, Rutherford, str; Shadforth, cox.)

3rd, School House (Litchfield i, Archer, Vivers, Hixson, str; Ross, cox.)
4th, Barry House (Beer ii, Sinclair i, Hinder, Curlewis, str; Johnson, cox.)

Won by one length, with 5 feet between second and third.

No. 3 Event.—Old Boys' Fours. — —1st, Manning, P. W. King, E. Smith and H. F. Wilson, str.; 2nd, Reading, G. L. King, J. L. Vivers, M. P. McCrae, str.) Won by one and a quarter lengths.

The form shown by the School crews was excellent, and provided abundant material for thought in choosing next year's representatives in the G.P.S. Regatta. If the function be run on the same lines, a little extended next year, we should be able to provide an excellent programme for visitors. The thanks of the Committee are due to Mr. Allan Ramsay, who acted as judge of the races.

Rifle Shooting

This year the rifle matches were fired at an earlier date than usual, owing to the alteration of the terms, and took place on September 23rd and 24th.

They resulted in a decisive win in both grades for S.G.S., who are to be congratulated upon putting in perhaps the strongest team that has ever competed in these matches. Unfortunately, the change of date placed the G.P.S. matches too early for the N.R.A. meeting, and the N.R.A. School's challenge Shield was therefore fired afterwards, as a non-competition match, and also won by S.G.S.

The School first team came second in each match, and therefore in the competition, the second team coming third.

In the Buchanan Shield the rest of the team, after a bad break-down on the part of the first man to shoot, which apparently put the team hopelessly out of it, shot consistently and pulled up into second place.

In the competition in the School for the Venour Nathan Shield, a departure was made from the previous method of shooting the match at the end of the Christmas term, as it was considered that the scores for the trophy should include those made in the G. P.S. matches.

During the Michaelmas holiday practices a qualifying round at 200, 500 600 and 800 yards was fired, and the first five to qualify completed the match by adding the scores obtained in the G.P.S. matches to those made in the qualifying round.

The Shield was won by Newman i, who is to be congratulated upon winning the trophy for the second time in succession.

The New Houses

FOR some time past it has been felt in the School that the arrangements for providing internal sports in the School have not been adequate to supply the needs of our greatly increased numbers. To remedy this defect a sub-committee was formed from the General Sports Committee, consisting of masters in charge of Houses, masters in charge of sports, and captains of sports, and a scheme was formulated which was originally intended to take effect from the beginning of next year. Owing, however, to a generally expressed wish on the part of the boys the scheme was started at the beginning of this term, and the competitions have been running on the lines of the scheme laid down during the term, though the full details have not yet been completed. Briefly, the scheme is as follows:—

Four "Houses" have been formed, having as their basis four of the boarding houses, and to these four "Houses" all day boys have been allotted, the leading sportsmen having been distributed, so as to make the "Houses" as equal as possible. A boy remains throughout the whole of his school career in the "House" to which he has been originally allotted, unless he becomes a boarder at a different house from that to which he has been originally allotted.

The "Houses" compete in all School sports for a trophy presented by the late Julian Simpson.

All sports count in different proportions towards the championship, which will probably be competed for each term, and the sports comprised are cricket, football, rowing, athletic shooting, swimming and boxing. Each "House" has its own House Captain, general sports committee, captains and sub-committees of separate sports.

It was considered fitting that the names of the "Houses" should commemorate great names in the past history of the School. The School House, of course, retains its name, the "Houses" formed on the basis of Cartref and the Observatory have been named Hodges and Robson, after our first headmasters, and the house formed on the basis of Bishopsgate, has been named Barry, after our founder, Bishop Barry.

The School has entered into the scheme with a great deal of enthusiasm, and competitions have taken place this term in cricket, rowing and boxing. "House" colours are to be granted in the form of a badge to members of first teams, etc.

The badges are taken from the quarterings of the School Shield. The School House badge is the torch; Hodges has the mitre; Barry the open Bible, and Robson the Southern Cross. The House captains are: School House, Vivers; Hodges, Shadforth; Barry, Maclachlan; and Robson, Heath i.

Combined School Sports.

FROM our point of view the G.P.S. meeting this year was a pronounced success, the result of long and careful preparation in the hands of an expert coach, and of the enthusiasm and diligence of those taking an active part. It somewhat detracted from the satisfaction in the win, that Langdon and Wallace, both of S.G.S., were incapacitated, the former through illness, and the latter through an accident.

P. J. Heath won the 100 and 220 yards in decisive fashion from McFadyen, of Scots' College, but could only reach second place in the 440 yards. His performances were excellent, as both the sprints were won in very fast time, and he showed excellent form. He also won the first division of the 440yds teams' race, in which McIntosh and Edwards scored two other first in the fourth and second heats respectively.

Platter for

F. W. Edwards showed excellent form and pace in the final of the 120 yards hurdles, which he won; but R. C. Jamieson was not up to the form shown in his heat on the first day, knocking his first hurdle so hard as to throw him back nearly a yard. In the high and broad jumps we did not secure a place, although A. F. Janes remained in the high jump till 5ft. 3in, a very fair performance.

J. L. Vivers scored fifth place in the shot put, which was won by Munro (S.G.S.) with a record put of over 40 feet.

The mile championship provided a very exciting finish in which Daniell and Nicklin secured first and second places purely on their excellent sprinting finishes. At one stage it looked very much as if they were behind to stay, but they fortunately got a clear track and made the necessary points. The second division was remarkable for the excellent judgment shown by L. O. Rutherford, who allowed Stephen (T.A.S.) to make the running for the third and fourth stages, and get so far ahead that it seemed impossible to bring him back, but Rutherford picked Scales up about 150 yards from home, and together they ran the Armidale man down about 70 yards from the finish, Rutherford breaking the tape just about 15 yards in the lead, while Scales was just beaten by Stephen for second place.

The half mile was won for us by Nicklin, who was smartly paced by Rutherford for a lap and a quarter. Daniell did not show up at all, allowing himself to be "pocketed" early in the race, and then could not get an opening. Nicklin, who kept somewhat wider also had trouble in extricating himself from the "ruck" in time to make his run home successful.

The Holcombe Cup for greatest number of points scored in senior events was won by P. J. Heath, with 21 points.

We lost the Junior Shield to Newington College, whom we congratulate heartily on the splendid performance of their junior team. The juniors were decidedly below form, and the bulk of the fighting fell on Jameson II, his better comrades having dropped out. Pannifex won the broad jump with a leap of 18 feet 4 inches, thereby gaining 8 points and the Eric Smith Cup.

The following were the Schools' representatives in the various events:—

100 yds.—P. J. Heath, F. W. Edwards, and F. D. Hixson.

220 yds.—P. J. Heath, and F. W. Edwards.

440 yds.—P. J. Heath, F. W. Edwards, F. D. Hixson, N. O. McIntosh.

High Jump—A. F. Janes, B. Tyrrell, J. L. Vivers.

Broad Jump—F. W. Edwards, R. C. Jameson.

120 yds. Hurdles—F. W. Edwards, R. C. Jameson.

880 yds.—J. B. Daniell, H. T. Nicklin, L. O. Rutherford.

Mile—1st division: J. B. Daniell, H. T. Nicklin.

Mile—2nd division: L. O. Rutherford, H. M. Scales.

Putting the Shot—J. L. Vivers, L. G. Bennett, A. F. James.

Fete.

A VERY successful fete, organised by the Ladies' Committee, was held on the School grounds on Saturday, October 11th. There were stalls of various kinds, among which the packet stall was a great attraction, for among the parcels were the possibilities of a trip to the islands, and a flight with Lieut. Sidney Pickles. The fete was officially opened by Lady Davidson, while Misses Daphne and Diana Davidson presided at the "Bran Pie." Besides the stalls there were many other attractions, such as side-shows of all kinds; including an open-air picture show in the evening. Dances were held in the School and Dining halls, bringing to a conclusion a highly successful and pleasant day.

We have to thank the Ladies' Committee for this, and so many other functions organised by them to swell the funds of the ground, and we all realise that without their very willing help the School would not now be playing on the main oval.

We have also to thank Mr. G. S. Warburton for very kindly supplying the fittings for the electric light, which did much to make the evening a success. A total amount of £605 was raised to further the completion of the ground and its attributes, pavilion, picket fence and scoring board.

S.C.E.G.S. Memorial Cricket Ground.

THE ground was officially opened on September 27th by Miss Dibbs, who unveiled the stone, placed at the south-western end of the pavilion and declared it to be well and truly laid.

The Friday before the day set down for the function was wet and drizzling rain fell during the morning, the wicket was practically under water and the omens were far from auspicious. The weather cleared in the afternoon, and Saturday broke clear and very hot. The School played the Old Boys the annual cricket match, which had lapsed for four years during the war, and great interest centred in the game, as holding the historic place of first match, and satisfying the speculations on the wicket which experts had declared was destined to be one of the fastest and best in the State. It was hard and dry and all signs of the previous day's rain had disappeared, testifying to the excellent drainage of the ground. The teams selected were:

The School: Maclachlan, Boazman, Edwards, Cadwallader, McIntosh, Barr, Bucknell i, Harris, Bucknell ii, and Wells, Manchee, Phillips.

The Old Boys: R. C. Cox, R. S. Holcombe, H. V. Hordern, R. Moses, R. V. Minnett, I. G. Longwill, C. J. Tozer, A. B. S. White, L. L. Williams, M. Gillies, F. Merewether, V. Y. Deane.

The Old Boys were short, and Maclachlan lent them Harris, who saved them from defeat.

The School batted first and compiled 154, which was very fair considering it was the first innings of the season. Boazman 22 batted freely, and to him went the first four on the ground, a hard straight drive which never left the grass. Cadwallader (19) gave signs of his brilliance, which has been shown later in the term. Manchee 28, batted well, and Edwards and Wells 17 each hit hard, but the line of the six proved too much.

V. Y. Deane 76 and R. V. Minnett 27 made the cricket lively, and Harris 44 not out rescued the Old Boys when the ninth wicket fell for 77, and the innings closed for 189. Scores:—

The teams lunched in the pavilion and thus laid the foundation of sport and fellowship on the ground which will see many a hard earned win. A large crowd of about 2000 attended in the afternoon to witness the unveiling of the memorial stone, and see the match instint with interest. There was a break in the cricket at 3.30 when Miss Dibbs unveiled the stone. Sir Thomas Dibbs had consented to perform the ceremony, but owing to illness was not able to do so. His Grace the Archbishop acted as chairman in the place of the Headmaster, Mr. W. A. Purves, who was ill. A full account of the opening will be found in the half-yearly report printed below. After afternoon tea the match was concluded. The gathering was a very representative one, and the day was highly successful.

An extraordinary half-yearly general meeting of the Grounds Committee was held in the School Library on Thursday, November 13th, when it was decided to carry on with the remaining improvements of the main oval, and erect a picket fence at once, and top dress the oval during the Christmas holidays.

Messrs. R. W. Carey and John Varley as hon. secretaries, and Mr. W. B. Clarke as hon. treasurer, resigned owing to an increase of work due to the end of the war. Mr. A. A. Heath was elected as a joint secretary with Mr. J. H. Hedges, and Mr. H. E. McIntosh was elected to fill the position of hon. treasurer.

The remaining 11 acres should be available in February and March, and it will be necessary to continue the work of development. The call on public ovals becomes greater, and we must have more extensive grounds for sport. Funds are needed for the levelling of 2nd and 3rd ovals which must be done during the autumn and winter of next year.

HALF-YEARLY REPORT, NOV., 1919.

Gentlemen,
 Your Executive begs to submit its half-yearly report for the latter part of 1919.

ATTENDANCE.—During the half year the Executive held five meetings, the attendance at which was as follows:—

 Mr. Varley 5, Mr. Sinclair 5, Mr. Harris 5, Mr. R. W. Carey 4, Mr. N. Y. Deane 4, Mr. Hedges 4, Mr. Fisher 4, Mr. L. W. Carey 4, Mr. Purves (chairman) 3, Mr. W. B. Clarke 3, Mr. Esplin 3, Dr. Pockley 2, Mr. A. A. Heath 2, Mr. Massie 2, Mr. Cameron 2, Mr. Curlewis 2, Mr. Ivo Clarke 1, Mr. H. F. Wilson 1, Rev. D. Davies 1, Mr. L. B. Heath 0.

GENERAL.—At the last Executive Committee meeting, Messrs. R. W. Carey and John Varley resigned their positions as joint hon. secretaries, owing to an increase of work brought about by the coming of Peace. Both resignations were very reluctantly received, and Mr. A. A. Heath was appointed acting assistant hon. secretary, until such time as a General Meeting might be called. Their invaluable work rendered to the ground cannot be over-estimated, and if it had not been for Mr. Carey's and Mr. Varley's great assistance the School would still be without a ground, and they can rest assured that their efforts have been crowned with success, and that they bear with them the sincere gratitude of both Old and Present Boys, together with all friends of the School.

Since the last general meeting your Executive Committee requested A. H. Curlewis, senior Prefect of the School, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of T. S. Hudson, who left to enter the Forestry Department.

Your Committee have again to thank Messrs. G. Fisher (Hon. Surveyor), H. H. I. Massie (Hon. Architect), and N. Y. Deane (Hon. Auditor) for the time they have given so willingly and generously to the New Ground, and also Messrs. Brookes and Deane for the use of their Board Room for Executive Committee meetings.

DANCE.—A dance under the direction of the lady friends of the School was held in the Sydney Town Hall on July 25th, and a sum of £250 was raised to swell the funds. The Dance was an unqualified success both socially and financially, and our thanks are due to all those who so kindly and efficiently carried it out.

OFFICIAL OPENING.—The Ground was officially opened on Saturday, September 27th, when the annual cricket match, the School v. the Old Boys, was played after a lapse of four years during the period of the war. The wicket was in excellent condition; considering that it was the first to be made on the oval, and the Old Boys, with the assistance of Harris, a member of the Home XI defeated the School by 35 runs. To H. T. Boazman goes the credit of scoring the first four on the oval, and all visiting teams since have found it difficult to find the boundary.

In the absence of the Headmaster, Mr. Purves, through illness, His Grace the Archbishop of Sydney very kindly acted as chairman at the ceremony of unveiling the stone placed in the south-west end of the pavilion, and inscribed as follows:—

SYDNEY CHURCH OF ENGLAND GRAMMAR SCHOOL OLD BOYS' MEMORIAL CRICKET GROUND, OPENED BY SIR THOMAS DIBBS. 127th SEPTEMBER, 1919.

Sir Thomas Dibbs, who had consented to unveil the stone, was unable to attend, owing to illness; but Miss Dibbs very kindly offered to perform the ceremony in place of Sir Thomas, and declared the stone to be "well and truly laid."

His Grace the Archbishop spoke on behalf of the School Council, pointing out the necessity of further sports grounds, and the very extensive efforts expended in preparing the main oval.

The Hon. James Ashton emphasised the part played by the Old Boys of the School in the Great War and he thought that no more fitting memorial than the new grounds could be raised to those who had fallen, a total of 122, and to those who had enlisted, to the number of nearly 900, adding imperishable honour to the School, and an example to those present and future boys of the School who are to carry on the Torch which has burned so brightly.

Col. Moseley, D.S.O., spoke on behalf of the Old Boys, eulogising the Australian as a soldier, and pointing out that many of those qualities which characterise a successful officer and soldier are born and matured in their athletic careers at school, the powers of leadership, self-control, endurance, and dash.

Mr. Russell Sinclair made an appeal for funds, when, together with the Old Boys' meeting held the same evening, the sum of £250 was subscribed towards the carrying out of the work.

Some 800 invitations were sent out, and about 2000 people attended, so that the day may be considered successful in every way. Small Rolls of Honour, printed at the expense of the School Council, were sent along with the invitation, reminding people that the ground is above all a memorial one.

The first floor of the pavilion has been completed at a cost of £650, and consists of two dressing rooms, and a dining room. Gas has been fitted, together with tables, seats, etc., making it possible for teams playing whole day matches to dine on the ground. It is hoped that the pavilion will be completed before the end of the year.

FETE.—A committee of ladies organised a Fete held at the School on Saturday, October 11th, also a dance in the School and Dining Halls in the evening, with great success, realising a sum of £603 6s 4d. The fete was opened by Lady Davidson, to whom our thanks are due. We cannot express too highly our appreciation of the help and work rendered by the ladies on this and so many other occasions, and we realise that had it not been for their efforts the main oval would still have been far from completion. From the very outset they have assisted us in every possible way, and always have been extremely successful in everything they have undertaken.

We have also to express our thanks to the Merry Makers for a bright performance given in the Coliseum Hall in aid of the funds, which they increased to the extent of £33.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The grass has grown considerably during the last spring, but there are still a few bare patches, and the lack of rain has again hindered the growth. The practice wickets are in good order, and are very hard and fast. The first three elevens practice regularly at the nets, and in the New Year a much larger space will be available, while the mud wickets on the western end of the ground are now in playing order, and are being much utilised.

The central wickets are very good, and bid fair to fulfilling the hope that they are to be the best and fastest in Sydney. The first eleven have played two competition matches on the new ground, and in successive innings have compiled 437 and 362 runs, making a total of one short of 800 in two innings. The first century was scored in the first competition match by J. Cadwallader with 121, Mr. H. E. MacIntosh's bat for the first 100 being won in the first match. Mr. Randal Carey's bat, offered for the first six hit on the new ground, has not yet been won as the batsmen find it a difficult matter to "find the country."

Your Committee decided that the whole ground needed a light top-dressing, in order to give it a fully grassed surface. The soil has been procured and delivered at a total cost of £100, and the work has already commenced. The oval has been pegged for the picket fence, and tenders have been called and it is hoped that a start will be made with this absolute necessity at once.

TREES.—It has been decided to plant trees along the outside fence in such a way as not to interfere with the light on the oval, and a sum of £50 has been passed to defray expenses. The matter is still in Mr. Varley's hands to decide under expert advice, as to the kinds of trees to be planted. A number of holes have been dug by School boys, and everything is in readiness for the completion of the work.

HORSE YARD.—The horse yard has been drained, and ashes have been laid, making a suitable enclosure for an excellent horse presented by Mr. G. G. Black, which is doing good work.

CONCLUSION.—Further grounds are urgently needed, and the extra eleven and a half acres should be available in February, 1920, when it will be necessary to begin the preparation of No. 2 and No. 3 ovals, to cope with the rapid growth of the School, and the scarcity of sports grounds. The end of the war has revived many old clubs and the demand on public ovals is so great that any school to survive as a Greater Public School must have extensive grounds of its own for sport which is a very necessary part of Greater Public School life.

In conclusion your Executive have every confidence in the continued growth and success of the fund, and would ask all present to use every endeavour to induce others, not necessarily Old or Present Boys to be subscribers to this worthiest of funds, and to help the School already great to become greater and carry on its traditions so well and truly laid.

We would ask you to continue your loyal support to enable us to continue and complete the work so well begun, and get all the financial support you can from Old Boys, Present Boys, parents and friends of the School, of whom there are a goodly number, so that future generations may develop to manhood and know that those who obtained and prepared their grounds were at the least not short-sighted, and offered opportunities for the greatness that is destined to be theirs, and that we realise that what the boys of to-day are, the race shall be.

1st ELEVEN.

THE term so far has been very successful, with exception of the loss at St. Joseph's, with which the state of the ground and the inclemency of the weather had much to do. On the following Saturdays the team compiled 437, 362, and 325 runs, defeating St. Ignatius by 356 runs, Sydney High School by 288 runs and the Scots' College by an innings and 171 runs.

Practically the whole team is returning next year, and quite a number will be with us for two more years, so the prospects of success are good.

The team has made a general improvement; they are keen and quick in the field, and all go at the bowling. Boazman and Cadwallader form a very good combination of opening bowlers, and when they join at the wickets the game becomes lively and interesting. The team practically has no "tail" as the High School match showed, and in the new year should be a very first class team.

Mr. A. B. S. White's bat for the aggregate number of runs goes to J. Cadwallader, with 342, Mr. J. H. Hedges' bat for the most improved and attractive batsman, who is also a representative of the School in G.P.S. 1st eleven, goes to H. T. Boazman. Mr. W. Carey's bat for the first 6 hit on the new ground has not yet been won.

MATCHES.

The School v. St. Joseph's College, on October 25th. Lost by 18 runs.

The game was played at Hunter's Hill, and the wicket was tricky after rain. A high southerly gale made the fielding and bowling difficult. St. Joseph's batted first and lost 7 for 42, when Egan and Flannery kept their end up while Linskey made the runs. Linskey's innings of 59 not out was useful, but slow and he should have been out from an easy chance given to slips at 40. A chance not taken at that stage in the game very often brings disaster. The innings closed for 152, the team making a very good recovery. For the School Boazman bowled very well, keeping a good length against a tiring wind.

The School innings was spoiled by three "ducks," made by young members of the team who evidently suffered from nerves in their first competition match. Boazman batted well for 26 made off clean, hard shots, aided by sound footwork. Harris with 25 and Bucknell 21 were useful, while Cadwallader had very bad luck in being caught for 12 off a shot which would have been a 6 on any ordinary day, but caught by the wind the ball fell short of the "on" boundary. The School v. St. Ignatius College. Played on the Memorial Cricket Ground at Northbridge on November 1st, and won by 356 runs.

This was the first competition match played on the new ground, and the wicket was in perfect order, and very fast and true. The boundary is very deep, and the total of 437 represents a much bigger score on any other oval used in School cricket, being about 600 yards round without the fence, which will make it 520 yards. To Cadwallader goes the honour of making the 1st century on the ground. His innings of 121 was made by good sound cricket, brightened by very hard off and straight drives, with his best shot for four past cover point. The score included 11 fours, 5 threes and 12 doubles. Boazman's innings of 65 was made by brilliant and attractive cricket, with strokes all round the wicket. His batting was sound and bright, and using his feet he severely punished the slow bowlers, driving them very hard and cleanly. Harris, 88 not out, batted vigorously, and was unfortunate in not having time to reach his century. McIntosh played a very bright innings, and was in good form, being particularly forceful past cover point and pulling well.

For St. Ignatius Kelly was the most dangerous bowler, although he only secured 2 for 50, and should develop into a very useful man with the ball. Morrissey batted best for Riverview, and was the only one to open his shoulders; McCrae (15) and Meagher (16) were slow and cramped.

For the School Cadwallader 4 for 25 and Edwards 3 for 25 were the most successful bowlers. Cadwallader had much more control of his leg breaks than he had on the previous Saturday, and Edwards kept a good length, and altered his pace with considerable success. Scores:—

The School v. Sydney High School. Played at Northbridge on November 8, on another perfect wicket and won by 288 runs. The School batted first and compiled 362. The feature of the innings was the stand put up by the last 2 wickets, taking the score from 182 to 362, thus adding 180 runs. Boazman again batted very brilliantly, reaching 87 in the most attractive and lively style. Wolstenholme's 95 was made by well judged and forceful play, including 11 fours, and 10 doubles, his leg shots being particularly hard and good. Maclachlan regained much of his old form, and his score of 44 was made by good cricket, livened by neat and crisp back cuts. Edwards 37, Harris 28, and Wells 27 not out, all played useful innings. For High School McCredie bowled 19 overs for 2 wickets at a cost of 50 runs; he kept his length to the end of the innings, but lost much of his pace after the first three overs. He appears to take a great deal out of himself by his action and run. Williams 22, and McKellar 14 were the visitors' most successful batsmen, McCredie being bowled by a leg break that did not break from Cadwallader. For the School, Wolstenholme 3 for 1, did execution among tail enders, and Cadwallader 3 for 15 disposed of the sounder batsmen. Scores:

The School v. The Scots College. Played at Scots on Saturday, November 22nd, and won by an innings and 171 runs. Heavy rain fell during the week, but the wicket was dry, and in poor order. The great feature of the match was the triumph of slow bowling on the part of Cadwallader in the first innings and Barr in the second, and Cadwallader's batting was also very fine. Scots won the toss and went to the wickets, facing Edwards and Cadwallader. The latter's slows, both leg and off breaks mixed, as they always are with pace, soon had the batsmen in trouble. Edwards appeared to offer no difficulty, and after four overs was replaced by Boazman, who bowled with great length and also used his pace to advantage. For Scots, Barr 25 and Kennedy 21 were the only batsmen to offer any serious resistance, and the innings closed for 86. Cadwallader, who had used his head, and bowled extremely well, took seven wickets for 15 and Boazman 2 for 28.

Cadwallader and Maclachlan opened our innings about five minutes before noon, and carried the score to 48 before the latter was out caught behind for 22. Boazman at once went to the bowling, and quickly ran to 22 h.o.w. to Black. The runs were made in the brightest and most confident fashion, but it is fate of brilliant bats to make one mistake only. Harris batted very freely, but with luck, for 54, and McIntosh was sound with 23. Wells again showed improvement with 21 not out.

Cadwallader, who started quietly livened, after lunch, and reached 126 in brilliant style, his straight and off drives being very forceful. His innings was a faultless and attractive one, with sound and clean shots, which coming after remarkable bowling, completed a very fine performance. The innings closed at 325, made in just over three hours. Bruce bowled well for Scots, keeping a good length and breaking slightly from the off. Scots opened their second innings at 4.10 to the bowling of Boazman and Barr. Again the wickets went to the slow bowler, and Barr, in his first competition match secured 9 wickets for 33 in six overs. He kept a good length, and used his "bosie" with discretion and success. Of the nine wickets, six were clean bowled. Black (22) was the best performer for Scots and the innings ended with 68. Scores:

The School v. Newington College. Played at Northbridge on Saturday, December 6, and won by 71 runs.

Maclachlan won the toss and took Cadwallader in to bat on a good and hard wicket. They took the score to 53, before Cadwallader was bowled off his pads by Lawes for 27. The bowling was slow and accurate, and Cadwallader had difficulty in getting the slow bowlers away. Maclachlan batted freely, before he was thrown out for 34. Boazman and Edwards took the score to 154, before Edwards was out caught for 51 made by slow and lucky cricket. It was a very useful innings, however, and gave Boazman an opportunity of scoring. The latter's 48 was not made as brilliantly as usual, partly owing to the fact that McIntosh and Harris failed. He was unlucky to mis-hit a ball to leg from which he was caught. The rest of the team apparently for no reason, collapsed, and the innings closed for 199. For Newington Pratt secured 7 for 23. He bowled well and kept a good length.

Newman and Simpson opened for the visitors, and took the score to 50 when Newman hit Wolstenholme on to his wicket for 29. In the following over the same bowler had Simpson l.b.w. for 11. Fitzpatrick reached 19 before he was caught off Barr, who might have bowled earlier in the innings. He again bowled with success for a young bowler, breaking both ways, and mixing them well. Wolstenholme was also successful and made the best use of the north easter to swerve. The innings closed at 128. Scores:

Plain Blazer.—Stephen, Nicklin, Tyrrell, Smith iii, Prell, Miller, Bennett, Busby, Grieve, Wakelin, Phillips.

CHARACTERS OF THE XI.

Maclachlan, A. H.—As captain he has much improved, and places his field with more skill, and is quicker to see a fault and rectify it. His batting has improved since the opening of the year, but he has not yet regained all his old form. He is slow and safe, and is a good opening bat to tire his opponents first bowlers. As wicket-keep he has been sound, but wants a little more pace to be finished. C.P.S. 1st XI, 1918; C.P.S. 2nd XI 1919; First XI 1917, 18, 19. Colours 1918, 1919.

Boazman, H. T., has thoroughly fulfilled our expectations, both as a batsman and a bowler. As a batsman he has become brilliant, and is among the best the School has yet produced. He uses his feet to great advantage, is very quick, and heavily punishes any slow bowling; his shots all round the wicket, but is still a little weak on the leg glance. He drives with great force, and cuts and back cuts and pulls with cleanness and crispness. His batting alone should carry him a long way in cricket. As a bowler he has developed pace, and makes the best use of his "nip"; he keeps a good length, uses his head and bowls with consistent success, a sound field and a safe catch. C.P.S. 1st XI, 1919; 1st XI 1918, 1919; colours 1919.

Cadwallader, J., both as batsman and bowler has had remarkable success. With the ball he has been very consistent, using his head, and breaking both ways. He has absolute control of the wicket, and varies his breaks with slow and fast straight balls, which are very effective. As a batsman he has vastly improved and his two centuries this term have been gained by sound and brilliant cricket. Still slow on his feet he is mastering the art of playing slow bowling. He has shots all round the wicket, the best and most forceful of which are the straight and cover drives, which very rarely fail to produce fours. He is both opening bat and bowler, and in each place has reached the highest standard; a very sound and clean field and brilliant catch. C.P.S. 1st XI, 1919; 1st XI 1918, 1919; colours 1919.

Edwards, F. W. Owing to absence did not play during the first term of the season, and has lost much both as bowler and batsman. His bowling has been, on the whole disappointing. Last season he gave prospects of being a good and useful fast bowler, but this term he appears to have lost much of his sting. His batting at times is good but he is impatient and over anxious; he can drive very hard, but does not judge accurately enough to make his drives clean. C.P.S., 2nd XI 1918; 1st XI 1918, 1919; colours 1918-19.

McIntosh, N. D.—An improving batsman, without much luck; has a good shot past cover point for four, and is quick to pull loose ones to leg. He is forceful and clean on the leg side, but has not yet mastered the drive. Is strong on fast bowling, but weak on slow and is apt to mistime the break bowler. He is curing his faults, and should develop into a fast and sure bat. As third man he has fielded brilliantly, and batsmen have learnt to be wary in their runs past slips; a sure outfield, and very useful member of the team. First XI 1918, 1919; colours 1919.

Harris, R. C. O.—A very much improved, but lucky bat, who has scored consistently and quickly. He hits very hard, but is weak against good slow bowling; is not quick enough on his feet to punish the slow break bowler, as he should be played; has a good cut and drive, and puts force into his pulls to leg. With plenty of practice he should become a first class bat; he knows his shots and uses his strength to advantage; rather slow in the field, but a sure catch, and good slip. C.P.S. 2nd XI, 1919; 1st XI 1919. Colours 1919.

Bucknell i, E. D'A.—A slowly improving bat, good on fast bowling, but weak against googlies. Is still cramped and does not make the best use of his feet. Is too slow to make his stroke and misses a lot of runs off loose ones. He has the makings of a very fair bowler, can turn from the leg, and alter his pace with effect. A sound field and good catch. 1st XI, 1919.

Bucknett ii, J. D'A.—Is a slow but fairly sure bat, who suffers like his brother from slowness in moving on to the ball; a useful man in a team, who will make runs when he becomes freer and more active. Has a hard pff drive and crisp square and back cut; does not hit hard enough on the leg; a very safe outfield and catch. 1st XI 1919.

Wells, E. V.—A very much improved batsman, is becoming much surer as he uses his feet and gains in freedom, has rather an awkward style, which he is quickly overcoming. He uses his strength and puts plenty of offence into his shots, of which the straight and cover drive are the hardest and best; is weak on the leg side, owing to his lack of freedom. A successful change fast bowler, who at times bowls very well; an absolutely safe catch; is a useful member of the team. 1st XI, 1919.

Wolstenholme, A. S.—A hard hitting batsman, who is apt to be too eager to go at the bowling; makes use of his height and is rapidly improving; should develop into a sound and brisk bat. He drives and pulls very hard, and has a forceful cut behind point for four; makes the best of loose ones, and very heavily punishes tired bowling. A very useful and promising fast bowler who swings, and makes the best advantage of the wind. A good field and safe catch. First XI 1919.

Manchee, G. W.—A rather disappointing batsman, who gave promise of making runs at the beginning of the term, but has not struck form in competition matches; is slow on his feet and does not time well; he should develop into a good batsman when he gains more confidence; a perfectly safe outfield and sound catch. 1st XI, 1919.

Barr, L. L. S.—An extremely promising slow bowler, breaks both ways and uses the straight and "bosie" with discretion and remarkable success. His nine wickets for 33 in his first competition match was a very fine performance. Like all young slow bowlers he occasionally bowls a loose one, but will soon lose that, and should become a very brilliant "googlie" bowler; is fast gaining mastery of the pitch, and knows when to set a trap. A weak bat who will improve with experience and practice; a fair field and good catch; 1st XI 1919.

2nd ELEVEN.

The second eleven have so far won all their competition matches, and require a win against N.C. to make them champions for the year. The batting has been disappointing, as no scores of over 50 have been made and players who bat in good style in practice have got themselves out by making poor strokes against easy bowling. Another cause of the low scoring has been faulty running and calling. Prell was the most consistent bat as he always succeeded in getting double figures, his highest score being 37. Stephen and Bennett could generally be relied upon to get a few. Fortunately, however, none of the second teams have been strong, and our team won its matches on bowling and fielding. The most successful bowler was R. E. Smith, who obtained 13 wickets for 34 runs, bowling a slow and rather deceptive ball with a slight leg break, and a swerve from the leg when the wind suits him. Barr 11 for 110 bowled well at times, his best being 5 for 21 against S.J.C., but like most "googley" bowlers was liable to lose his length and be severely punished. Wakelin was useful as a medium fast bowler.

Adrian Roberts passed out of Wellington (India) College and obtained a Commission in the 3rd Skinner's Horse. It took him ten days to reach Laralai, where the regiment was stationed, practically in the centre of Baluchistan, some sixty miles from the railway. It was in the early part of January, and the weather was bitterly cold, snowing very hard. About May 7 they got orders for Maluhisa, and all the ladies were ordered to leave the station, as war had been declared on the Afghans, and as the neighbouring tribes were not to be trusted, two squadrons were ordered to Killa-Sarfulla, some 45 miles from Loralai, towards the Afghan border. He accompanied the squadron as Adjutant and cipher officer. Within an hour of their arrival they had the luck to capture and to kill one of the leading trouble raisers of the Zlob tribe, for which the regiment received 1500 rupees. At K. S. he met a local chief—Lergoon Khan, who was extremely keen on tent pegging, and while the regiment used pegs 3in. wide by 6inches high he used pegs 1in. wide and 2in. high, and he could draw five out of six at any time. They spent two and a half months at K.S., and all were bad with fever and dysentery. They then marched back to Loralai, and thence to Harsai, where they entrained for Chaman. Here he got an extra bad attack of fever and was sent to hospital at Quetta for 3 weeks. Here he captained the Gymkhana contest team. He is now back with his regiment and in command of a squadron.

To their delight they had just received orders to embark for Egypt, and leave Baluchistan, which is one of the Empire's most unhealthy and difficult tracts of country to hold. Roberts was granted six months leave just before the show began, but of course it was cancelled, but he hopes now that things have settled down again to have the leave re-granted and to be home about the beginning of December.

The Hon. Treasurer begs to acknowledge the receipt of subscriptions received up to December 6th (those received after this date will be acknowledged in the June number) for the year 1919-1920 from the following:
