SCHOOL NOTES.

Once more the builders are with us, and the sound of the trowel is heard in the land. Everything west of the Library has been demolished. In place of seven classrooms we are to have a two-storey block containing ten rooms, in part following the old line, with a wing projecting northwards. Facing the asphalt there will be a colonnade or cloister, continued to the main block, with an open terrace above it. We hear fine and heartening things about the furnishing and fittings of these new rooms.

* * * * *

Owing to the generous co-operation of a number of well-known artists, a number of original pictures have been acquired for the adornment of the new classrooms. Our very best thanks are due to these gentlemen, and we hope that in the future it will be possible to acquire for the School a representative collection of pictures and prints in all branches of art. A sum of money has been set aside for this purpose in connection with the new classrooms, and a number of prints have already been acquired in addition to these originals.

* * * * *

One of the most interesting incidents in the demolition of the old classrooms is shown in the accompanying photograph. It shows the collapse of the last or south wall of V.I.B. classroom. Several years ago the old Hall was made into two classrooms and a vestibule. In this photograph, taken by Miss Harbison, Matron of School House, we see the last bit of one of the oldest parts of the School making way for the new spirit of progress. At the extreme left is the Library; then comes a corner of the Masters' Common Room—a two-storey building nowadays. The lower window at the right belongs to School House Common Room, and above it is the Sick Room.

* * * * *

Mr. C. E. Burgess returned to duty about half-way through the term, after having been absent through illness since Easter. His place has been taken meanwhile by Mr. Arnold. Mr. T. A. Lappin, who has been with us all the year, will be leaving at the end of term, and will take with him the good wishes of all who know him.

* * * * *

During the rebuilding, forms have been accommodated in the Common Rooms of the Houses, in the Scout Hut, and even in a partitioned section of the Dining Hall.

On 25th November the following were appointed Prefects : J. A. Cormack, W. G. Henderson, B. P. Jay, J. G. McLeish, P. C. Richardson, P. F. Way. And the following Sub-Prefects : N. G. Alexander, M. H. Kelly, G. E. Marr, W. A. Pringle, W. B. Pritchett, W. A. Starkey, W. W. Woodward. The ceremony in Chapel was somewhat more elaborate than heretofore, and most impressive.

* * * * *

The Council received during the term the sum of £250, bequeathed to the School by the late William Norman Cadwallader, whose death occurred in March this year as the result of an accident. He was one of four brothers, of whom all are Old Boys. He attended the School from 1918 to 1921, and was prominent as a cricketer and footballer. The Council has not yet decided definitely the manner in which the gift is to be applied. It has been received with gratitude as a touching indication of the loyal sentiment of an Old Boy towards his School.

CHAPEL CHOIR.

The regular choir has been larger this year than previously, as a number of boys have joined it to sing bass. The result has been a great strengthening of the lower parts and a more robust tone from the whole choir. Generally the enthusiasm and interest shown has been even greater than in other years, and particularly from those whose inability to read fluently makes it necessary for them to spend a good deal of time in practice. The example set has been a good one, and there is every reason to believe that it will be followed next year. An invitation is extended to boys in the Fifth and Sixth Forms who are interested in music to sing in the choir; even though there may be no vacancies at the moment, the choirmaster will be glad to have voices, who can be called up as a vacancy occurs.

The most important consideration in chapel singing is the hearty cooperation of the congregation, for whom the choir should be leaders. This is specially the case in the chanting of the psalms, and we have attempted this year to chant with a view to sense and reading accent. Until each member of the congregation has a pointed copy of the psalm sung, there must be a reliance on memory, and the number of psalms sung must necessarily be small.

A number of anthems have been sung, as well as Merbecke's Communion Service on All Saints' Day, and the Russian Contakion for the Dead as an introit. A record has been made of O Saviour of the World and a Bach Chorale, which is available for those who would like a copy at a small cost.

The most ambitious venture of the year has been a performance of Mendelssohn's Lauda Sion, a short cantata. This was performed at a Mendelssohn evening, together with the motet, Hear My Prayer, by the same composer. On that occasion we had Mr. Faunce Allman as organist, and Mr. Arnold Mote, of Sydney Grammar School, spoke about Mendelssohn.

THE TORCH CLUB, WOOLLOOMOOLOO.

The outstanding event of the term was the concert held on October 29th in the Parish Hall. Forty 'Shore boys bought tickets, and a large number attended the concert. The artists, or entertainers, were rather late in arriving, but when they did arrive they gave an excellent entertainment. Step-dancing, conjuring, juggling were interspersed between musical items, and were very skilfully performed. The Chaplain, to fill in time until the entertainers arrived, showed some lantern slides of Egypt and Palestine.

The attendance on Friday night has been well maintained.

DEBATING.

During third term there are no outstanding events in the debating world. The Tuesday afternoon debates continued, and keenness was displayed by the less experienced speakers after the sixth form members had started their examination. From this group we expect to draw some members of next year's team.

CHESS CLUB.

The Club has pursued the even tenor of its way during the term. A new activity has sprung from it—draughts. It is a common sight to see eight boards in action during the lunch hour—five chess games and three draughts games.

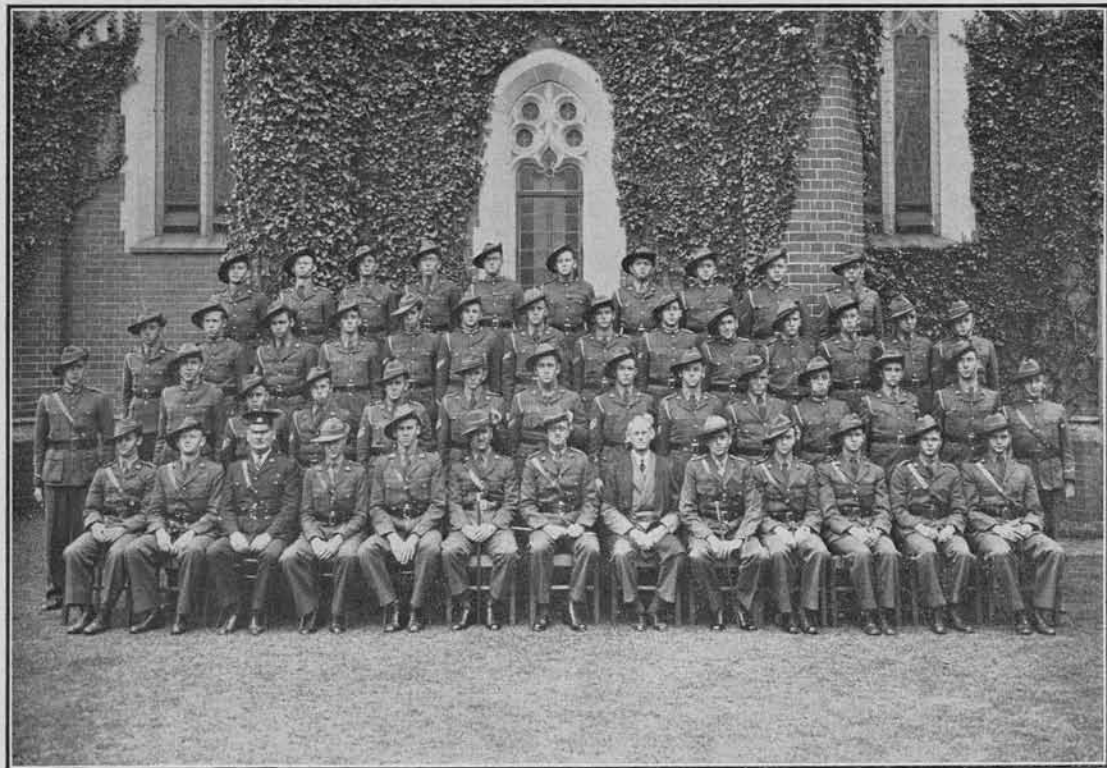

The Novice Tournament has ended with Fraser as the winner. There were twelve competitors, and all of them had learned their chess this year at the Club. Next year we hope to conduct three tournaments, seniors, juniors and neophytes participating in the different groups.

THE GARDEN FETE.

The Fete in aid of the Jubilee Fund was held on November 27th. The accompanying balance sheet indicates more forcibly than words that it was a great success. Much preliminary work was carried out beforehand. On the last day of second term a bridge party was held with the primary object of defraying the expenses of the Fete; more than 600 attended, and this function alone realised £114. As various other private functions were held from time to time, a very useful sum was in hand before the day of the Fete. Tickets were on sale beforehand which not only gave admission, but were also redeemable for a shilling at any stall. Of these 5000 were sold by boys; this effort was no doubt largely responsible for the record attendance. The quality of the goods offered for sale was extremely high, and was an indication of the enthusiasm and untiring efforts of the stallholders and their assistants. The large attendance threw an unexpected burden upon the Refreshment Stall, but the situation was met with resourcefulness and success. There was a wide variety of sideshows to provide amusement, and a continuous series of displays on the School ground; the moving-picture and the play by the girls of S.C.E.G.G.S. were specially popular in the Hall.

It would perhaps be inappropriate in this brief account to attempt to convey thanks to all those who contributed to the success of the day. A list of names would cover a considerable space. The School has always been fortunate in its friends. On this occasion there was the usual atmosphere of friendliness which appears to characterise most of our functions. It is not to be doubted that the spirit of friendly co-operation which the Fete exemplified is a contribution to the life of the School, which is comparable even with the great financial success of the day.

GARDEN FETE HELD ON SATURDAY, 27th NOVEMBER, 1937.

THE ART CLUB.

On 6th November last a party from the School attended a lecture on "The Evolution of Art," given by Mr. Max Meldrum. Mr. Meldrum's remarks were so clearly and simply expressed that we may take them as a guide for sound criticism of art.

Mr. Meldrum began his lecture by showing an ancient-Egyptian picture, and proceeded to analyse it. The most marked feature was the lack of sense of planes, the whole picture appearing as one flat surface. The sole aim of the artist was to depict the scene, without any attempt to make it a work of art.

From this he continued to a picture by Giotto, very crude and markedly reminiscent of the Egyptian in its lack of planes. Here Mr. Meldrum mentioned that much of the modern art showed this tendency, and that he attributed this failing to lack of keen perception. This present age is not the only one to show this failing, but periodically a lapse into carelessness has appeared.

The next picture, Leonardo's "Mona Lisa," illustrated the tremendous advance on the art of Giotto. From Leonardo he proceeded to the Dutch painters, and attributed the profusion of interior subjects to the Dutch love of home.

Before going to Rembrandt, Mr. Meldrum pointed out the fact that everything can make a beautiful picture, provided the artist treats it with sufficient care. Certain subjects may appear more beautiful to us because artists, in painting them, have brought out their beauty for our appreciation. As an example, Mr. Meldrum next showed us Rembrandt's wonderful picture of a carcass of beef, so beautifully painted that it ranks amongst the world's greatest paintings; yet how many modern artists would consider such a subject?

In mentioning Germany, Mr. Meldrum stated that it had produced few great artists, Dürer and Holbein being the only two masters. He discussed Velasquez for some time, and told us that in the most artificial court of the history of Europe, that of Philip IV. of Spain, in Velasquez there was the most natural of painters.

Referring once more to the equal beauty of all our surroundings, Mr. Meldrum showed us a picture by Corot. He then proceeded to cut it up into sections, and showed it to us, section at a time, pointing out that each made an equally beautiful picture.

In conclusion, Mr. Meldrum emphasised a most important factor. There are two sides to the making of a picture ; the artist does his share in the painting of the picture, but the critic (for we should all be critics) has his part to play in the interpretation of the artist's ideas and feelings. If the critic does not go thus far, he is not playing his part and will never have a true artistic appreciation.

THE OCTET.

A group of songs from the New Fellowship Song Book is being prepared, and it is hoped that a programme of these will be given next term.

During the last week of term, as last year, unaccompanied carols, if ready in time, will be sung in the body of the Chapel. These will be : "While shepherds watched their flocks," "Good Christian men, rejoice," and "O little town of Bethlehem" (Walford Davies).

Owing to voice breakage, fresh trebles have had to be recruited.

THE CAMERA CLUB.

The Camera Club has had once more this year a series of meetings on Friday afternoons dealing with miscellaneous aspects of photography.

Mr. Hill, of the Kodak Company, gave us a number of demonstrations of developing and of the use of various photographic materials. Mr. Hill also sponsored a competition for photographs of the School ; this was won by O. L. Edwards. Several films of an educational nature were shown by Mr. Hill on special film afternoons.

The Davis Cup film was shown mainly for the benefit of the tennis fiends, but the Club members also found it very interesting. For the use and projection of this film we have to thank David Jones Ltd.

Several colour films of travel subjects were shown. These and several comedy shorts were lent by Mr. Robertson, to whom we are much indebted.

We have to thank the Kodak Company for their aid and assistance, and the Club as a whole feels greatly indebted to Mr. Hill for his useful instruction and explanation of our troubles.

The Camera Club meets every other Friday, and the membership fee is very small. Those wishing to join next year should see Mr. Clinch as early as possible after the beginning of the First Term.

MISS MOORE AND MISS DUCKER.

By P. H. E.

Two good friends of the School died last September. They were Miss Elizabeth Walpole Moore, housekeeper from 1924-1932, and Miss Mary Page Ducker, Matron of School House from 1923-1932.

From the nature of her work in the School, Miss Moore came in contact with few of its members. To most she was only vaguely known as a figure in the background. All could see and appreciate the efficiency of her work as housekeeper, but not very many had the opportunity of discovering her kindness, her loyalty, and her sturdy, forthright character. Those who were her friends miss her very much indeed.

All the School knew and loved "Matey." During her time in School House she was probably the strongest influence for good in the School life of all boys who came into close contact with her. Her nature was entirely lovable. She was so utterly confident of the goodness of boys that no one could let her down. She was always firmly on the side of authority, and could make even the most wrongheaded boys see the reason for conforming to rules that might otherwise have irritated them. I often wonder who owed most to "Matey": the Housemasters, whose lives (sometimes unknown to themselves) were made easier and more comfortable through her influence; the prefects and senior boys, to whom she gave a higher conception of conduct and duty; the younger boys, to whom she was not very much less than a mother; or the weaker vessels, who were all made stronger by the knowledge that "Matey" saw something lovable and worthwhile in them, and by their own desire to live up to what she thought of them. If School House in those years was a pleasant place to live in (and, in spite of its dilapidation, many have very fond memories of it), the strongest reason for it is to be found in "Matey's" influence.

Miss Moore and Miss Ducker were very close friends, bound closer by a deep love for the School. When Miss Ducker left for Booligal, to stay with the Sheaffes, Miss Moore did all her packing for her and saw her off safely, so that she would not be worried in any way before her long trip. Very shortly afterwards Miss Moore died suddenly, and before the news reached Miss Ducker she, too, had had a sudden seizure, from which she did not recover.

'Shore has had no better servants.

SCOUT TROOP.

Work has gone on as usual since the last issue of The Torch-Bearer. A very successful camp was held in the September holidays with the kind permission of Mr. S. E. Spargo, on his property, Fairlight, at Wallacia ; a number of us attended the annual District Camp at Bungaroo ; and yeoman service (if we may say so) was rendered to Mr Fisher in his Preparatory School Camp at National Park during the term.

From the time of breaking-up until the 23rd or 24th of December we expect to be camping at "Macquarie Grove," Camden, in anticipation of which we wish to thank Mr. Edward Macarthur Onslow. The property is immediately north of the Cobbity bridge out of Camden ; and if our friends think of calling on us, we would like to know, as the estate is strictly private, and we shall feel it our privilege to conduct our visitors to the camp site.

CADET NOTES.

The Cadet Corps depends for its success on co-operation, and any credit that may be due, any feeling of satisfaction in a job well done, is to be shared by all who make a contribution to the general wellbeing, not least by the parents and boys whose enthusiastic co-operation is so great an encouragement.

The past year may be regarded, from many points of view, as a successful one. The general standard has been well maintained, with, perhaps, an improvement here and there. All experiments had happy results ; the boys appear to have enjoyed their parades. In spite of an unusually—some would say an unnaturally—large number of wet days, on which no parades were held, the usual programme was completed.

Our strength is up once more, the maximum being 229, in the first term, and now 218. Of these 209 put their names down to attend the annual Camp.

Annual Camp.—The Camp was held at Liverpool from December 7th to 11th. As the group of which we form a part numbered over 600, we were accommodated in the main Camp in H.Q. D, and part of C Blocks, plus the P.O. Buildings block. A full report of the Camp will be published next term.

Experiments.—The new uniform is more comfortable and looks very much smarter than the old one. In hot weather the roll collar is much appreciated.

The Map Reading and Field Sketching course, for which we purchased the necessary maps and protractors, aroused a great deal of interest. Many very good field sketches were produced.

Proficiency tests stimulated interest in the repetition work necessary to the attainment of a satisfactory standard of drill. Badges are awarded to those who pass all tests. This sounds like more examinations, but there are vital points of difference between these tests and the exams. so unpopular at present. There are no catches; the questions are known beforehand, the results are announced at once, and the exam. may be taken again in case of failure, at any time. In fact, all pass in the end.

The use of recruit squads instead of recruit training platoons was a move in the right direction, and will be repeated.

The difficulty of finding suitable country in which to carry out certain phases of I.S.L. training was most successfully solved, at insignificant cost, with the help of the Department of Road Transport.

Junior Leaders.—The Platoon Commanders and Serjeants gain experience in the exercise of command and leadership in the training of their platoons. Almost all the platoon training is done by Cadet officers and N.C.O.'s. Assistance in the training of the junior leaders is given by Staff Serjeant-Majors allotted to us by Brigade. Their assistance is most valuable, and indeed indispensable, but unfortunately at the present time there are insufficient to go round. A School of Instruction was conducted by Division during the last May holidays. The number allowed to attend was limited to 11 from this School. The boys who went benefited very much, and have been of great assistance during the remainder of the year.

A few figures may be interesting. This year a larger number than usual of N.C.O.'s from the previous year returned to School, so that the number of fresh appointments to N.C.O. rank was smaller than usual. Still about 60 boys went through the N.C.O. training at the beginning of first term; 33 of these were passes, of whom 22 have so far received appointments. Eight who passed last year were appointed this year.

Seventeen Cpls. passed the examination for promotion to the rank of Sjt., 12 being subsequently promoted.

Nine Sjts. passed the examination for first appointment to commissioned rank; of these 6 have been appointed Cadet-Lieutenants.

The total at present holding appointments is 55.

All Cadets who have passed their Proficiency tests are eligible to undergo the training preparatory to the N.C.O. exams. to be held early in next term—the more the better.

SHOOTING REPORT, 1937.

The usual Saturday practices were carried out during the second term. At first it seemed that the teams would be rather weak, but as time went on it was seen that two strong teams would be available.

Mr. Holt was again with us, and Mr. Grigg also helped to coach the teams.

Whenever it was possible, teams were entered into the Militia matches. Much match practice was thus established. Shooting Camp was a great success, and the general spirit and keenness of the boys was noteworthy.

The matches were, as usual, very evenly contested. In the Rawson we were one point behind S.G.S. at the first range, but they were superior at the final range. The N.R.A. Shield team shot very well, but here again S.G.S. were superior. The weather conditions on the first day were very trying; a very strong wind was blowing across the range, making the shooting very difficult.

Supplement to "The Torch-Bearer," December 1, 1937.

S.C.E.G.S. RIFLE CLUB.

The following day, the 2nd Team shot excellently to win by 10 points from S.G.S. In the Buchanan we were one point ahead of Grammar after the rapid firing, but they won by four hits at the snap, thus giving them a majority of 15 points.

S.G.S. won the Premiership, and we congratulate them on their splendid effort. Although we only filled second place, the team shot excellently.

The Venour-Nathan Shield was won by O. L. Edwards and A. M. Finckh, who tied with an aggregate of 159 out of a possible 182.

The results of the G.P.S. Competitions are as follow :—

HOUSE REGATTA.

The House Regatta was held this year on Saturday, October 23rd, at Gladesville, over a half-mile course from Henley to Gladesville Point. Two crews competed from each House, and heats were arranged, the losers of each rowing a consolation race to decide third place. The points awarded were 3, 5, 3 for 1st fours, and 5, 3, 2 for 2nd fours. The usual band of interested spectators occupied Gladesville Point. The weather was overcast but calm, until a slight following wind sprang up later, as if to counteract the strong ebb tide. In the heats of the 2nd fours, Barry and School were successful, the latter being awarded the race when Robson made an unjustifiable cross-over near the finish. In the 1st fours a similar situation gave Hodges the first heat. School won the second from Barry by a comfortable margin. In the finals, the placings for the 2nd fours were Barry 1, School 2, Robson 3, Hodges 4; and 1st fours School 1, Hodges 2, Robson 3, Barry 4. School thus won with 11 points, and Hodges, Barry and Robson followed with 5 points each.

ATHLETICS.

One of the most pleasing features of this Athletic Season was the very definite evidence of re-awakened interest in the sport provided by the great increase in entries for all events in the sports programme; no healthier sign could be desired, and it is hoped that in future years there will be not only no falling off, but rather an increase in this feature. A big field is always sure to return results in later years. It is advisable, however, to stress once again that the technical events, such as the shot, high and broad jumping, and particularly hurdles, require the expenditure of considerable time before even a moderate standard of performance is attained, and that more young boys should spend more time studying and essaying the technique of these events. In a school of our numbers, there should always be at least four boys capable of running a flight in both senior and junior grades.

The Annual Sports Meeting was held at Northbridge on Saturday, August 28th, under good weather conditions. The heats of all events had been decided during the preceding fortnight, and only the Under 16 Hurdles had to be held over. W. G. Henderson (Captain) and P. F. Way (Secretary) were excellent in handling the organisation, and a number of senior boys gave much welcome assistance. A further attempt to improve the handling of the 100 Yards and 220 Yards Handicap events in all grades by the taking of trial times before allotting handicaps resulted in considerable improvement in these events, but closer approximation can yet be obtained. The novelty events introduced were very well patronised, and tended to relieve the tedium of the more seriously contested Championship events. Thanks to the energy and willing help of officials and volunteers, the rather bulky programme was carried through with very little delay; it is understood, however, that the starter discovered some entirely new things to say about guns.

The honours in senior events went to C. P. Tom, who collected 24 points, J. C. FitzHerbert being second with 21 points. In the under 16 event, F. A. Epton and J. C. Petrie tied with 10 points each; A. V. Maxwell was unfortunate in being unable to compete in these events on the day, as his subsequent running was very good.

The under 14 champion for 1937 is E. S. Finckh, who won the three events in this class.

The House Competition was won by Hodges House with 95 points, Robson House being second with 89½, and School House third with 77.

On October 1st the annual fixture against Sydney University in the seniors, and against Sydney Grammar School was held, the ground being in rather heavy condition after rain, which again fell lightly during the afternoon, but was not sufficiently heavy to cause a break in the programme.

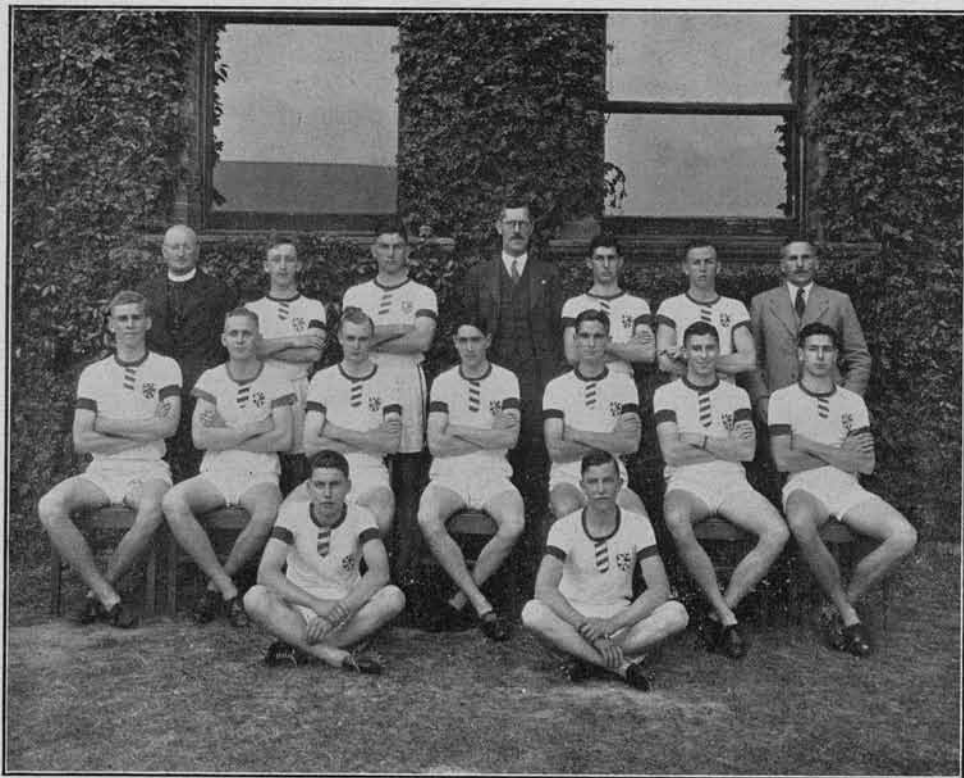

The senior team defeated a rather weak University combination by 51 points to 33, University winning the 880 yards, the 100 yards, a division of the 440 yards, and the open relay, the School team taking the remainder of the events. In the 120 yards hurdles, J. D. Dally did not get a try-out, as University were without a hurdler. C. P. Tom, W. G. Henderson, P. F. Way, D. G. Garland and B. H. Travers all performed well in their events, the latter putting the shot 41 ft. 3 ins. J. F. Wearne jumped well, but was not extended, winning his event at 5 ft. 4 ins.

Sydney Grammar School were again a little too strong for us in the junior grade, but the two teams had some excellent competition practice. Our visitors defeated us by 59 points to 43, winning all events except the 90 yards hurdles and the under 16 relay race. Grammar have some very fine junior athletes in North, Lenthall and Prowse. F. A. Epton, A. V. Maxwell, S. K. Lyttle and J. W. Godwin all performed well for the School, Maxwell's hurdles in 12½ secs. on a heavy track being a fine performance.

The results are appended.

G.P.S. SPORTS.

This year, we offer our congratulations to Sydney High School on their performance in winning the senior honours, and to Sydney Grammar School on their successful efforts in the junior grade.

The senior team was a combination from which it was thought at one stage that a win in the Combined Sports would eventuate; but certain evidences appeared which raised a doubt as to the final result, one which, sad to relate, was only too true, and we missed the Championship by only two-thirds of a point.

Although the weather was threatening, the day was actually fine, but the tracks had been well soaked. In spite of this, some excellent performances were registered; J. F. Wearne took the high jump, B. H. Travers was second in the shot, J. D. Dally second in the 120 yards hurdles, and the mile team performed splendidly. In other events, however, our expectations were not quite fulfilled, and we were outclassed in the 880 yards and senior relay events.

In the juniors, S. H. Suhan won the 880 yards in good time, and A. V. Maxwell put up a splendid performance in the 90 yards hurdles, which constitutes a new School record of 12½ secs. P. E. Haley, who was not quite at his top, was second in the high jump. In the remaining events the junior team was not strong enough, and the very good team from S.G.S. won comfortably.

Results of the meeting, as printed in the "Sydney Morning Herald," are appended:—

UNDREA ATTENDS THE SHORE FETE.

By J. P. G.

My dear friends, I have been up to my neck in parties this week. None of us are as young as we were, you know. I have found myself so sleepy after my night's rest, but after my glass of grape-fruit juice I just feel up to facing another day. I find that drink so refreshing. Have you ever tried it? However, I managed to crawl along to the Shore Fête on Saturday. My dears, you should have seen the crowd. It must have been a tremendous success judging by that. What's more, everyone seemed to have a perfectly divine time—even the grounds (Oh! how I love that Chapel!) seemed to enter into the spirit of it.

When we entered, there was so much to see that we hardly knew where to start. First, we went up to see a display by the Prep. School boys. My dears, they looked so ducky in their little two-piece costumes that I could have hugged all of them.

Then there was the cowboy giving his Wild West show. I could have screamed when he came riding in on a simply lovely brown horse; he was wearing a very smart black sombrero and such wicked-looking spurs. I do hope he never used them on his lovely horse. He really looked like Tom Mix, but so, so more handsome. He did some gorgeous tricks with a rope tied in a sort of circle.

I have never entered so many raffles in my life. I could not resist the chance of winning that too lovely rug. After entering at least four, I determined not to buy any more; but just then such a handsome tall boy with such divine blue eyes came up and asked me to buy a ticket. He said it was a set of afternoon tea tables. I must admit I yielded to the temptation—of the tables, of course. I sat near the telephone all Monday morning, but the only ring I got was from the hairdresser's. My dears, she was in quite a huff, speaking of wasting her time and how untrustworthy some people are. As if I could help not knowing that Frankie was going to ask me to dine with him! As if I could refuse him, the little dear!

After a simply divine time, we started for home absolutely laden with parcels. We were tired and dusty, but very happy all the same.

UNDREA.

P.S.—I forgot to tell you about the broadcaster. He had a beautiful voice which could be heard all over the ground. Although I waited at the door of the building, he did not appear. I am so anxious to see him. I am sure that a boy with such a nice voice must be so, so handsome!

THE CITY AT NIGHT.

R. Long (I.I.B. Prep. School.)

As I look out from my window, 'across the Harbour, I see the lights of a great city, the City of Sydney. Great buildings tower above the horizon, and from the great G.P.O. clock-tower, which is brightly illuminated, can be heard the striking of its wonderful clock. It sounds weirdly majestic as the noises from the city float over the now placid waters of the Harbour and reach my ears, and I think how different these sounds are from the noise and bustle than can be heard by day.

Neon signs of all colours flash on and off, advertising various things and shops; and occasionally there is a great rumble, somewhat resembling the sound of a great building collapsing in an earthquake. This is the sound made by an electric train crossing the Harbour Bridge. Here and there weirdly lighted shapes glide across the Harbour, and occasionally make queer sounds like the blast from a shepherd's horn. These ferry boats carry passengers across the Harbour, or for pleasure cruises. Suddenly, over the city the beam of a searchlight stabs through the darkness and sweeps its wavering path across the night sky. The Harbour is all ablaze with lights, and smaller lights twinkle along its shores. Over this broad expanse of water, one of the most beautiful harbours in the world, towers the Harbour Bridge, which, from my window, looks just a long string of lights:

As I draw away from the window, I think what a beautiful sight the city, so crowded by day, looks at night.

A SUNSET.

R. A. Merewether (I.I.A. Prep. School.)

When the golden sun is sinking slowly in the western skies,
And the flaming mass of beauty lights the clouds before my eyes
With the golden light of sunset; that is wonderful to me—
As the sun drops o'er the treetops, and the moon is o'er the sea.
The clouds appear as banners of gentle crimson hue,
As I stand upon the hilltop, silhouetted 'gainst the blue;
But of all the scenery of dusk, the view that I love best
Is that of crimson sheets of cloud stretched far out in the west.

FESTA NOSTRA—A BALLAD.

Up the Pacific Highway the proclamation ran,
And the folk of Military Road have heard it to a man ;
North Sydney, aye and Northbridge, Crow's Nest and Neutral Bay,
Pulled up their socks and permed their locks,
Opened the family money-box,
And marched in glad array.

The garden was a paradise—or wilderness—of talk,
And three-inch heels betrod the lawns whereon we may not walk.
There were fathers, there were uncles, there were male and female cousins ;
There were mothers, aunts and grandmammias, and pretty girls in dozens.

The League of Health and Beauty, a supple sisterhood,
Presented plastic poses, which doubtless did them good ;
And a real wild Western cowboy shot a great eyeful of dope,
With a gee-gee and a Stetson and a whirling bit of rope.

And then, beloved brethren, there came a golden voice,
That breathed o'er Pandemonium, and bid us all rejoice.
It boomed around the walls and ground, and told us who was who,
And what things cost, and who was lost, and where the houpla grew ;

It told the weary wanderer where he might park his feet ;
It cheered the good policeman on his solitary beat ;
And when Miss X and Mr. Y their final round forgot,
In simple moving accents it told them what was what.

And someone played "God save the King," whereat we all uprose,
With stiffened back, and hat in hand, and eyes adown the nose ;
But suddenly they changed the tune, and then—great Scott, the chatter !
For everyone was asking what the dickens was the matter.

A raffle is a lovable thing, specially when you win :
There's the thrill anticipatory, and a pleasing touch of sin.
There were lots and lots of raffles, causing lots and lots of fun,
For you can't stop taking raffle tickets once you have begun.

Most popular of raffles was a Brobdinagian Lot,
With the Old School Badge upon it—folk simply rushed at that !
They raffled geese and turkeys, and chickens large and small ;
And the School Dog won a frankfurt from the laden Produce Stall.

Then when the curfew tolled the knell that told of parting day,
The elders packed their parcels, and on sore feet stole away ;
But the younger folk—sub-fifty—forgot their pedal aching,
And danced. Meanwhile the Treasurer was counting up the takings.

Here's a health to all the helpers who organised the show,
Who set it up, and took it down, and trotted to and fro ;
Who bought and sold, both young and old ; who tidied up the ground—
A health to you, good people, for you made twelve hundred pound.

A LOT OF NOISE ABOUT NOTHING.

By D. M. J.

And it fell that upon a certain day I was visiting the Place of Learning.
And mine eyes lighted upon an army in the famous precincts ; yea, an army, even to the number of two hundred and fifty men.

For this was the 'Shore Cadet Corps which paraded, even for an inspection by their captains.

And while I regarded, there fell upon mine ears a noise of shouting and of cursing, which verily I believe was fit to awaken the dead.

Then looked I all around to discover whence came this noise, and was truly astonished.

For I found that it issued from the mouth of one man alone.

Yea, even from one who swore mighty oaths

Saying, Whomsoever I see who slacketh shall this day suffer my dire displeasure.

For this is a day of great occasion, when verily I say unto you that our honour is at stake.

And I am Sarge, who swear by The Nine Gods that it shall come out unblemished.

Then thought I, this is surely some great man who causeth such disturbance, opening his mouth and letting fall from it such words of wisdom and exhortation.

But lo ! presently come the captains and leaders of men, skilled in the art of war and in parades.

Then was I truly astounded, for he who cried to such an extent did suddenly hold his peace and became cast down.

For when the captains came they upbraided the fellow for being officious, and he became as a man of no account.

And when I had seen this, I continued on my way, marvelling much that such things could be.

CRICKET NOTES.

1st XI.

Of the three Competition matches, two were won outright and the other was lost outright.

Against Sydney High School and St. Joseph's College big scores were made, 8 for 328 and 3 for 310 respectively ; yet the batting was not strong, for too much depended on Travers and Wearne. There were some big partnerships—Travers and Wearne made 221 for the third wicket in the second innings against S.H.S.; Travers and Colwell, 136 for the first wicket against S.J.C.; and in the same match, Wearne and Way had an unfinished partnership of 134 for the fourth wicket.

There was plenty of variety in the attack—in fact rather too much. Way and Connor did most of the bowling, and had most success, which they thoroughly deserved. Alexander took 8 wickets for 25 against S.J.C. on a rain damaged wicket ; he is a slow left-hander who has now learnt to spin, but in doing so has lost his command of length. Wearne and FitzHerbert shared the slow bowling, FitzHerbert being the more accurate, but not as dangerous as Wearne if he happened to strike a length.

The fielding was usually fairly good, but too many critical catches were dropped.

Travers captained the team well, and was ably assisted in third term by the Vice-Captain, Wearne.

The Competition was won by St. Joseph's College, and we extend to them our congratulations. King's were second, and we came third.

Travers, Wearne and Way have been chosen with the G.P.S. 1st XI. to play against a team selected by the New South Wales Cricket Association. We congratulate them all, and particularly Travers, who is to captain the G.P.S. side.

Following are the results of the matches played:—

2nd XI.

After enjoyable games against a University team and Christian Brothers, Waverley, the Competition was resumed. We lost to St. Joseph's after getting into a strong position. In this match our batting failed for the first time, and our fielding was below standard. St. Joseph's, however, were a good team, and in the end beat us comfortably. We won against King's in a good match. This left us runners-up to St. Joseph's in the Competition.

The team played good cricket most of this term, and a number of players should do well later.

7th and 8th XI's.

The usual matches have been played, and results have been fairly satisfactory. There was little to choose between the two teams as regards standard of play. The most useful batsmen included Wileman ii., Davies, Duddy iii., Arnott, Wilson, Batchelor, Norton, Girvan, Carter, Lambell i., Shellshear i., and Bell ii. Most wickets were taken by Carey, Wileman, Turner, Shellshear, Duddy, and Bateman. There is plenty of room for improvement in fielding and running between wickets. Batchelor and Turner have proved themselves keen and reliable as captains.

III.B. XI.

Results of matches played this term are as follows:—

- v. School 3rd XI.—Lost. 3rd XI., 230; III.B. XI., 125.
- v. S.G.S.—Lost. School, 93; S.G.S., 97.
- v. T.S.C.—Lost. School, 8-80; Scots, 115.

- v. The King's School.—Shore, 8-142 (Godwin 52 n.o., Osborne 36 n.o.); King's, 84 (McCorquodale 2-12).

“B” Colts.

This team has had a very successful year, winning six out of eight matches. The strength has perhaps been in the bowling. Wood has taken 22 wickets for 110 runs, Godwin 11 for 56, and McDowell 10 for 63. Godwin has been the highest scorer, making 246 runs in six innings, retiring once.

Three matches have been won this term—against Malvern, Trinity, and St. Aloysius'. The match against Scots was lost.

HOUSE CRICKET.

The results of the matches played during Term III. are as follows:—

School House	92 points
Hodges House	74 points
Barry House	58 points
Robson House	36 points

The following table shows by whom each match was won. Winning teams are indicated thus: Barry, B; Hodges, H; Robson, R; and School, S. *Means that the match was won on the first innings only. Rain and wet wickets forced a draw in eight matches:—

Match.	1	2	3	4	5
Barry—Hodges	H	Draw	B*	H*	H*
Barry—Robson	R	B*	B	B	Draw
Barry—School	Draw	S*	S*	S	Draw
Hodges—Robson ...	Draw	H	R*	H	Draw
Hodges—School	H	Draw	S	S	S*
Robson—School	S*	Draw	S	S*	S*

At the time of writing, eight matches between the House 1sts and 2nds are to be played at Northbridge on Saturday, December 4, and Monday and Tuesday, December 13 and 14. In these matches, the results of which will count in the House Competition for this year, any boy, irrespective of whether he is a member of the first four outside teams, etc., will be eligible to represent his House. General House practices to enable selection for these matches will have been going on at Northbridge for three weeks. We hope to publish the results of these matches in this issue.

The following batting and bowling performances were outstanding this term:—

Batting.—J. Godwin (Barry 3rds), 116; G. B. Edwards (School 4ths), 100 ret.; Martin (Robson 4ths), 106 n.o. and 53 n.o.; Hume (Barry 1sts), 78; Briggs (Robson 3rds), 64; Flecknoe (School 1sts), 48; Fisher (Hodges 2nds), 46; Roseby (Hodges 5ths), 41; and L. W. Davies (School 4ths), 38 ret.

Other outstanding bowlers were Hordern and Parsonson (Barry 3rds) and Steadman (Robson 4ths).

PREPARATORY SCHOOL NOTES.

Chapel.—The lessons have been well read by various boys in the Preparatory School's special Friday service. There is now a "Hymn-choosing" Committee of seven boys, who also choose fresh tunes to be learnt. Marchant has sung solos, and it is hoped that others will volunteer to do the same. There is an aim to vary the form of service as much as possible to arouse and sustain interest.

It is proposed to have a special Christmas service in December.

Art.—A voluntary drawing class has been formed. This takes place in the last period on Friday in II.A. room. Many boys have shown great progress, and are beginning to draw in their own time, which is essential for any real success. P. Andrews, of Form I., must be congratulated on his stillness as a sitter.

J. W. Lipscomb, of V.A., has kindly offered to include Prep. boys in his parties visiting exhibitions.

The chief mistakes made by beginners are to indent the paper with hard, heavy lines ; to draw everything postage stamp size ; and to concentrate on minute details before attempting to block in main masses in true proportion.

Several fine pictures now hang in the Prep., including good reproductions of Gainsborough's "Blue Boy," and two scenes by French artists. These were gained as prizes by winning relay teams at the Sports. Mr. Fisher has been promised other large pictures.

Music.—Short gramophone programmes were given before the whole School. These included "Overture to the Mastersingers" (Wagner) and movements from "D Minor Pianoforte Concerto" (Brahms). Notes on the composers were read beforehand. The majority of the boys seemed to appreciate greatly this magnificent music.

Several forms much enjoyed records from the "Mikado," which were very kindly lent by Mr. Cull, to whom our best thanks are due. We are also very grateful to Mr. Carr, and to W. B. Pritchett, of V.B., for gifts of records.

Several boys now have small gramophones of their own, and although the strains issuing from them are hardly compatible with the music of Wagner and Brahms, yet they serve a purpose.

Form I. gave a concert among themselves, and much talent was shown. About ten songs were sung, one in French ; there were, too, three piano solos played from memory.

More than one hundred boys from the Preparatory School again enjoyed an A.B.C. orchestral concert in the Town Hall, conducted by Professor Heinze.

The Percussion Band is still going strong, Miss Hirst visiting us each Wednesday.

General.—We thank Dr. Marie Hamilton for some fine photographs of Sydney and surroundings, including some particularly fine aerial views of the Bridge. Several of these are being framed and hung.

We also thank the Committee of the Masters' Common Room for a number of volumes of Punch. These will be used for English and Drawing.

The annuals given by Mr. Tony Fisher, an Old Boy, are a welcome addition to the Library, and our best thanks are due to him; also to S.C.E.G.S. Old Boys' Club for the regular supply of illustrated papers.

Great enthusiasm was shown over the Fête, several hundred tickets being sold.

The skating craze was followed by snail racing, which proved popular for a time; but when boxes of these creatures are left neglected in the Boarders' Room the results are found to be anything but pleasant.

Visits to the Technological Museum were paid by several forms.

Films illustrating the making of paper, the origin of coal, and others of general interest have been shown to the various forms.

We are looking forward to a talk by Mr. Daniell, who will give a lecture illustrated by slides and film of a recent trip by air to England.

A most enjoyable week-end camp was held by the boarders at a lovely spot in National Park. We are greatly indebted to Mr. Mander-Jones, Mr. Grigg, and the Senior Scouts—J. Baker, R. Dent, J. Jamieson and J. May—who helped in the organisation. We hope to repeat the experiment, an account of which appears elsewhere.

The tennis court is very well patronised by the boarders, and the new School turf is of wonderful benefit, both for fixtures and pick-up matches.

We have been very fortunate as far as illness is concerned, but it has been decided to postpone regular swimming until next term.

PREPARATORY SCHOOL SPORTS.

These were held on Thursday, 30th September. Unfortunately the weather was unkind to us, rain making the afternoon an unpleasant one. Despite this, we all enjoyed ourselves.

We should like to thank Mrs. O. P. Wood for her kindness in presenting the prizes, and Messrs. Boyd, Carr, Row, Walker and Wood for giving up their time to help us in the judging of events; also those parents who contributed to our Sports Fund, enabling us to cover expenses.

Instead of small individual gifts to each member of the relay teams, a large picture was purchased for each relay, the names of the winning team to be inscribed on it during the current year. These pictures will be hung in the classrooms.

Following are the results:—

75 Yards Championship (under 10).—Macourt II., 1; Carr, 2.

- 100 Yards Championship.—Under 11 : Robson, 1; Burns, 2. Under 12 : Meikle ii, 1; Walker, 2. Open : Robb, 1; Lyons, 2.

 Points for the Quarter Competition were :—

Baker, 36½ points	1
Davies, 32 points	2
Linton, 21½ points	3
Hall, 14 points	4

Baker therefore winning the Quarter Competition Cup.

PREPARATORY SCHOOL TENNIS.

What a boon the court has proved to the boarders! Nearly every fine afternoon finds it occupied by enthusiasts; there are several of these, so that it has been necessary to arrange a time-table of play.

Enthusiasm in the latter part of this term has been focussed on the Doubles Tournament, in which ten pairs competed. There was little to choose between several of the pairs and the ultimate winners. MacDiarmid and Watson deserved their success. Trophies and prizes were presented to the four semi-finalist pairs.

The day boys are to be given the chance to show their skill in a match against the boarders at the end of term.

PREP. BOARDERS' CAMP AT NATIONAL PARK.

It was on an afternoon in October that we set out from the School on a camping expedition to South-West Arm at National Park.

Having packed our knapsacks, we caught a train to Central Station, and then on to a small station, where we boarded the motor-train and continued our journey to a siding called Loftus. From here we continued our journey on foot, carrying our knapsacks on our backs. After travelling along a road for two miles or so, we took a path into the bush, and, having crossed a small weir, we commenced to climb the mountains on the other side. The bush was thick, and many prickly shrubs covered the most part of the ground, but, despite the fact that parts of it were rather hard to scramble over, the country around was very pretty. At last we crossed the hills and reached a large space of cleared ground, where the cars with our provisions were parked, and we were informed that we were not far from the camping ground.

We now gladly set out on the last stage of our journey, and reached the camp about 5.30 p.m., and soon found a suitable place to pitch our tents. Having cleared away the small shrubs, we at last got our tents up and went down to where tea was being prepared. This meal was rather plain—steak and bread—but I do not think I have enjoyed a meal so much in my life.

The camp was situated near a small clear weir, which lay at the bottom of a valley between two mountains. Just below the camp was a large overhanging rock, over which the waters of the river tumbled in miniature cascades; then below this again lay a large pool, which formed an excellent swimming area. This was a beautiful site for a camp. The pool looked so inviting that we could not resist a dip before breakfast. Later we went up to fix our tents, and then went for another swim, after which we had dinner. That afternoon we went downstream to a large pool with a long sandy beach. After a swim here we came out of the water and went down to one end of the beach to where many of us had left our clothes, but were very surprised to find that the tide had risen and some of our clothes were floating.

That night we lit a big camp fire and had singing, and some Scouts who were accompanying us acted some short plays. We were all glad to get to bed that night, even though our slumber was somewhat interrupted by mosquitoes and ants.

On the next morning, Sunday, we went to a pool upstream and had a swim. Mr. Mander-Jones made us a swing from some rope he had with him, and we had a very enjoyable time on it. On Sunday afternoon we left our camp and returned to National Park station, but by the road this time, and from there caught the train back to Sydney.

PREPARATORY SCHOOL CRICKET.

Despite the rain during the term, a number of matches have been played on Saturdays in addition to the regular weekly practices and internal Quarter matches.

At the time of going to press, Davies Quarter is in the lead, and should once again win the Quarter Cricket Cup.

The 1st XI. has been quite successful, and has played some interesting and exciting matches. Although soundly beaten by Scots, the team had a narrow victory over Mosman. Wylie and Ferris have been bowling well, while Coulton, MacDiarmid, Burns and Ferris have been best with the bat.

The results are as follows :—

1st XI.

v. Trinity Grammar.—Trinity 152 drew with Shore 83 (Burns 29, Coulton 20 ; Wylie 2, Petrie and Ferris 1 wicket each).

v. Scots.—Scots 216 beat Shore 109 (Burns 40, Ferris 18, Lyons 17 ; Wylie and Ferris 2 wickets each).

v. St. Leonards.—St. Leonards 137 beat Shore 94 (Ferris 33, Burns 19 ; Wylie and Ferris 3 wickets each).

v. Edgecliff.—Edgecliff 169 beat Shore 37 (Stanley 19, Trenerry 14 ; Stanley 3 and Wylie 2 wickets).

v. Mosman.—Shore 107 (Coulton 44, Ferris 36 ; Ferris 3 and Lyons 2 wickets) beat Mosman 73.

v. Cranbrook.—Cranbrook 121 beat Shore 71 (MacDiarmid 32, Coulton 19 ; Goswell 1 wicket).

OLD BOYS' NOTES.

The President of the Old Boys' Union has received the following letter from Mrs. Davies, which was inadvertently omitted from our last issue :—

28 Morton Street,
Wollstonecraft.

1st June, 1937.

Dear Dr. St. Vincent Welch,

I do not know how to express my very grateful thanks to the Old Boys for all their kindness to me, and would like you to thank them on my behalf.

The response to the appeal for the memorial to my husband was very wonderful, and I appreciate it very deeply.

I would very much like to donate a yearly prize of £1/1/- for some special subject, in his memory.

Perhaps I could consult with someone on the matter, and would be glad if you would let me know.

With kindest regards,

Yours very truly,

MABEL A. DAVIES.

This very kind offer by Mrs. Davies of donating a yearly prize has been referred to the Headmaster with a request that he be good enough to make a recommendation.

* * * * *

Appearing opposite is a photograph of the first Shore Football Team to win the G.P.S. Competition. The positions occupied by the various boys were :—

Full-back, C. F. Maxwell ; three-quarters, J. O. H. Nickoll, B. C. A. Pockley, J. G. A. Pockley, C. M. M. Marsh ; halves, H. E. a'Beckett, K. V. McDonald ; forwards, E. R. H. Merewether, R. J. A. Massie, E. H. Dodds, E. J. Grieve, S. C. Irving, C. A. Pennefather, R. L. Sayers, O. MacDonogh, W. E. Tucker.

The coach was Mr. I. G. Mackay, who is now Headmaster of Cranbrook School.

The team included one player (B. C. A. Pockley) who gained his colours in 1906, and four others who won theirs the following year (1907).

The team beat T.K.S., S.I.C., N.C. and S.H.S., played an 8-all draw with S.G.S., and a scoreless draw with S.J.C.

Melbourne.—Major Lemaire advises us that a most successful G.P.S. Dinner was held at "The Wattle" on Wednesday, October 27. Mr. E. I. Robson presided, and Mr. G. L. Lukin was vice-chairman. There was an attendance of about fifty. S.C.E.G.S. Old Boys included G. Barton Browne, O. R. Charlton, V. D. Watson, G. C. Hawker, T. J. Hudson, F. W. Lindsay, R. R. Sinclair, P. C. Taylor and L. H. Lemaire. Mr. Robson made an excellent speech, and all present considered it the best dinner yet held.

Lodge Torch-Bearer held its Annual Service in the School Chapel on September 26. The address was given by Wor. Bro. Canon Barder, and the lessons were read by Mr. J. J. Jefferson, W.M., and Mr. J. C. Pope, P.M. An excellent solo was rendered by Mr. Clem. Q. Williams.

Jubilee Fund.—Old Boys are reminded that they, and they alone, have the privilege of membership of the Old Boys' Union. A privilege usually carries a responsibility. They are asked—those who have not already done so—to recognise and to discharge that responsibility.

Supplement to "The Torch-Bearer," December 1, 1937.
1st XV. (1908)—G.P.S. PREMIERS.

O. MacDonogh, C. A. Pennefather, K. V. McDonald, B. C. A. Pockley (Captain), E. R. H. Merewether,

C. M. M. Marsh, H. E. a'Beckett, S. C. Irving, E. H. Dodds.

The broadcast, through Station 2FC, of the service in the School Chapel on Sunday evening, November 21, must have been a matter of intense satisfaction to many Old Boys, particularly those in the country, who were thus enabled to imagine themselves, at least for a short time, back again in the very centre of the School's activities. We understand that Colonel Twynam, that enthusiastic member in the Goulburn district, arranged for a number of Old Boys to listen-in at his Taralga home, and we think it highly probable that similar meetings took place in many other centres.

* * * * *

The Old Boys' Union sends its heartiest congratulations to all those friends of the School who worked with such sustained enthusiasm to make the Fête the outstanding success that it proved to be. This tangible proof of their real affection for the School should be both an inspiration and a reproach to anyone whose watchword is: "Words—not Deeds."

* * * * *

The annual Old Boys' Tea was held at the School on Friday, October 1. There was a record attendance of Old Boys, who thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of their hosts; but the percentage of those present who stayed on for the Annual Meeting of the Old Boys' Union was most definitely disappointing. It should be realised that the Tea was instituted by the Council and the Headmaster as a convenience for those attending the meeting. It is hoped that, from next year onwards, this unfortunate habit of leaving immediately after the Tea will cease, and that all members present will recognise their responsibility to their Union and their privilege of membership by taking part in the meeting and the election of office-bearers.

As a result of the meeting, the following office-bearers were elected:—
 Patron: L. C. Robson. President: H. L. St. Vincent Welch. Vice-Presidents: Rev. I. D. Armitage, R. C. M. Boyce, W. B. Clarke, A. H. Curlewis, N. Y. Deane, A. D. W. Fisher, C. M. Marsh, R. J. A. Massie, A. H. Moseley, D'A. F. Roberts, E. I. Robson, G. C. Turnbull, A. B. S. White. Honorary Secretary: R. W. Keegan. Honorary Treasurer: R. N. Cadwallader. Assistant Hon. Secretary: F. W. Tyrrell. Assistant Hon. Treasurer: R. B. Hipsley. Hon Auditor: D. M. Dixon.

Nominations for the Committee were received, a postal ballot taken, and the following were elected:—G. E. Browne, J. R. Burrell, J. Cadwallader, T. D. Esplin, D. M. MacDermott, C. S. Tiley, T. A. Tonkin, W. H. Travers, E. S. White.

A G.P.S. Dinner was held at Eaton's Hotel, Muswellbrook, on October 9. Of the fifty who attended, Shore was represented by the following: V. T. Hall, C. Parkinson, G. K. Lawrie, L. W. Davies, N. A. Chattle, W. E. Westgarth, E. S. Horder, R. Burns, T. B. Haydon and F. Maslin.

* * * * *

John C. Orr is now practising as a solicitor at Tumut, and spends his spare time shooting and fishing for the elusive trout.

* * * * *

John Brunskill, who has a stock and station agency business at Wagga, is still active on the tennis courts. Our reporter's eye, on the lookout for local colour, was caught by John's School blazer; he gained his colours in 1915.

* * * * *

Hector Martin, on last news to hand, was returning to England after a trip to Japan and San Francisco on the "Tudor Star." She was originally bound for China, but the war changed the company's plans, and The Torch-Bearer lost a chance of a war correspondent!

* * * * *

Another Old Boy solicitor is Freddie Dodds, of Gundagai, who is reported to be looking very healthy and prosperous in his new offices.

With the news that T. Leslie Bray is serving as Captain in the 6th Light Horse, and Ray Kierath as Troop Serjeant in the newly formed Narromine Troop, comes a letter from Keith Magno, who is O.C. No. 3 Pl., 17 Bn., Balmoral, in which he says:—

On the 25th August of this year, the 17th Battalion (The North Sydney Regiment) opened a new Training Centre in Mosman. The Drill Hall is situated in the old Astor Dance Hall, on the Esplanade, Balmoral.

The object in opening this centre was to recruit ex-G.P.S. boys between the ages of 18 and 30, of good physique, with a minimum height limit of 5 ft. 8 ins. Up till the time of writing, eighteen have already enlisted, which includes representatives from Shore, Grammar, High, Riverview, and The Armidale School.

At the end of each year, boys who have served with the School Corps leave School and do not continue their training in the Militia, mainly because they do not wish to go to a strange unit, where they are unlikely to find any of their friends.

Prospective recruits are cordially invited to the Drill Hall at Balmoral any Wednesday evening between 8-10 p.m., when they will meet ex-members of their School, and where further particulars may be obtained.

It is our ultimate aim to provide ourselves with a uniform, based on that worn by British troops in India. However, it is only by combined effort that anything of this nature can be accomplished.

An Old Boy recently had the pleasure of calling on Barney Heydon, of "Bloomfield," Murrurundi. He was received very hospitably, but when the fact emerged that he was an Old Boy the hospitality was redoubled.

* * * * *

Rev. C. E. W. Bellingham writes from St. George's Vicarage, Hyderabad, India, saying that he greatly appreciates getting The Torch-Bearer and other news of the School regularly.

* * * * *

The Rev. F. Hugh Hordern, for two and a half years Rector of St. Peter's, Cook's River, was inducted on July 29 as Rector of St. Paul's, Redfern.

* * * * *

P. F. (Ben.) Phillips is another of the innumerable Old Boy solicitors. He is doing very well in his practice at Deniliquin, and is always pleased to see any of his former School pals. Most of his G.P.S. friends there are from Melbourne.

Old Boys' Dinner in London.—Hearing that this Dinner was to take place, the Committee of the Old Boys' Union sent by air mail a letter conveying greetings and news of School and Union activities. This letter arrived with a day to spare, was read at the Dinner, and appears to have caused considerable satisfaction. A letter from K. N. E. Bradfield and I. G. Esplin is full of information about the function, which has aroused such interest amongst Old Boys in Australia. The text was, unfortunately, too long for complete publication, but we have culled the plums therefrom, and here they are :—

"The Dinner took place on October 8 at the 'Bristol Grill,' just near Piccadilly Circus, and was a marked success in every way. Mr. Matthew J. Dawson was in the chair, and twenty-three other Old Boys were present. The keenness was so great that some travelled considerable distances to attend. Our journey of sixty odd miles from Oxford was dwarfed in comparison with the efforts of S. T. Cooke-Russell, who came down from South Shields in the very north of England, and Bill Blomfield, who flew down from his R.A.F. station in Lincolnshire.

"We have sent a copy of the menu home under separate cover, but we will repeat the toast list here, as it differs slightly from that on the menu :

TOAST LIST.

'THE KING.'

'THE SCHOOL.'

Proposed by Matthew J. Dawson.

Seconded by I. G. Esplin.

'THE OLD BOYS' UNION.'

Proposed by R. Minton Taylor.

Seconded by K. N. E. Bradfield.

"At the informal meeting held afterwards, it was decided to form a branch of the Old Boys' Union in England (with, of course, the President's permission).

"It was also decided to form a committee consisting of a president and two secretaries, one to be a permanent resident in England and the other to be someone who had recently come over from Australia, and therefore in closer touch with the School and recent Old Boys. Matthew J. Dawson was elected president, Jesse S. Bishop permanent resident secretary, and K. N. E. Bradfield visiting secretary.

"J. S. Bishop's address is : C/o Commercial Banking Co. of Sydney, 18 Birchln Lane, Lombard Street, London, E.C.3. It is hoped that all Old Boys coming to England will write to him to inform him of their arrival, and their addresses in England to which letters can be sent.

"Attached is a list of those Old Boys who attended the Dinner :—

Nigel Ashton.	J. S. Flashman.	A. C. Furse-Roberts.
A. J. Atkins.	E. H. Fry.	A. M. Ross-Smith.
J. S. Bishop.	Dr. W. D. Henderson.	D. F. R. Shetliffe.
O. H. Blomfield.	R. Moran.	P. H. Shirley.
K. N. E. Bradfield.	Frank Munro.	R. H. Spring.
S. T. Cooke-Russell.	R. Needham.	R. Minton Taylor.
Matthew J. Dawson.	Harry Mack.	G. D. Thane.
I. G. Esplin.	Dr. F. J. A. Pockley.	Dr. M. F. E. Walker."

[At its November meeting, the Old Boys' Union Committee agreed to authorise the formation of an English branch of the Union in London.]

* * * * *

The Old Boys' Union wishes to take this opportunity of congratulating both the School Athletic Teams on their fine shooting at the G.P.S. Sports.

Would any Old Boy who knows the present addresses of the following please send these addresses to either the Hon. Secretary of the O.B.U., Box 1334 J., G.P.O., Sydney, or J. S. Bishop (whose address is given above) :—

R. A. R. Rae (late of Air Armament School, Eastchurch, Kent):

R. I. Worrall (21 Teignmouth Avenue, Perivale, Middlesex).

Dr. Willington (C/o Australia House).

Mervyn Paine has written us a long letter from Armidale. Extracts from his letter :—

“One of the first Old Boys I met was Aub. Witts, whom one meets about town almost every day.

“Gordon Hutchinson is to be seen also on occasions, although at present he is on holidays with his wife in Tasmania, I understand, visiting his brother, Dr. Hutchinson, in Launceston. The ‘Sunnyside’ Hutchinsons are participating in the general good season, and are often to be found in town.

“Just called across the road to see Mr. R. N. (Bob) Hickson, the architect ; he is getting together particulars to call a meeting within a week or two now. One of the T.A.S. Old Boys has spoken to me recently about forming a branch of G.P.S. Old Boys in Armidale. T.A.S. Old Boys predominate, but there are numbers of King’s Old Boys around Walcha, and I know of a few Scots. It looks as though Armidale would be too weak for such an association, but we might do something in conjunction with the Tamworth crowd, who are supposed to be strong. In conversation, some of our scouts in the Club might sound the other associations on the subject.”

“Oh to be in England, now that April’s there !” Thus sang the bard ; but it’s not going to worry Harry Hattersley and Tom McKay this winter—they’ll be on their way thither with the Amateur Golf Team. Congratulations to you both ! You have certainly earned the distinction.

As stated in the Annual Report of the O.B.U., the 9th Miller’s Point Boy Scout Troop (S.C.E.G.S. Own) is in recess because of the lack of a Scoutmaster and a Scout Hut. If any Old Boy feels capable of undertaking the control of the Troop, or of supplying a Hut, the Secretary of the Union would be pleased to hear from him at any time.

John Bleakley, who returned from abroad on December 10, tells us that while in London he met Bob Spring, who was over there for his company, Metters Ltd., and was having a busy time in the English cities. Also Esmond Selby had recently arrived at Vienna from his trip through Austria.

He also mentioned having met an Old Boy who left the School about 1907—Donald Macintyre, who was born in Australia, fought in the Great War for Great Britain, and later became a citizen of America, where he has lived for fifteen years.

"No doubt," he wrote, "there are many more Old Boys in London. . . . I have heard from the Roberts, Appleton, S. Flashman and K. Bradfield, among others."

* * * * *

E. D. Thane was recently appointed chief aviation officer of the New South Wales branch of the Shell Company. A Major in the R.A.A. (Militia), he has held a commission for the past eleven years.

* * * * *

C. K. Roberts, who is gold mining near Bulldog, in the Gulf division of Papua, saw Brian Molloy at Port Moresby recently.

* * * * *

Latest news of N. D. McWilliam is that he is a patrol officer in the New Guinea Administration, and stationed at Madang, the old German capital. Most of the time, however, he is out on the ranges. Cedric Croft is also reported to be in the same line of business, but stationed in Ramu Valley.

* * * * *

Ralph Kelsey has been for the past two years Vice-President of the Bowen (North Queensland) Chamber of Commerce, declining the chair last year owing to pressure of business.

* * * * *

It seems a wonder to us that such an apt name as R. A. ("Snow") Swift has not attracted more prospective members for the Old Boys' Ski Club. Surely there are more than one or two Old Boys who would be interested in the formation of such a club, which would probably be able to secure lower rates at Kosciusko. Box 1334 J., G.P.O., Sydney, is the place for letters on this subject.

* * * * *

The Rev. Donald Begbie is returning home from England for Christmas, and will arrive here on December 23.

On October 4, the "Monterey" brought back to Sydney three Old Boys who had distinguished themselves overseas. These were the Ashton brothers, Jim, Bob and Geoff., who formed three-quarters of the polo team that won the Champion Cup in England last June. This cup is the most important trophy of the English polo season. They are also to be congratulated on having shipped thirty ponies to England without mishap—in itself no mean achievement.

* * * * *

For many years crews of Old Boys have assisted in the training of the various G.P.S. crews, and now a scheme has been mooted by which these crews of ex-G.P.S. boys will meet in contest at the University Regatta in 1938, shortly before the G.P.S. Regatta, which will be held on April 23. Any Old Boy who would be interested in trying for a place in such a crew should get in touch with John Burrell (BW 1916) or Bill Buckham (BW 1755).

Not content with his adventures flying over the Polar ice-field of the Antarctic, Flight Lieutenant Stuart Alexander Laird Campbell turned his attention to the wilds of Papua, and for some months was engaged in flying work for mining and exploration companies in the regions of the Fly and Strickland Rivers in Papua. Included in his experiences was that of being posted missing for a couple of days, and being eventually discovered sitting on the edge of his 'plane drifting down the Fly River and hoping for the best. He is at present in London on business, but is expected back in Sydney next year.

Among those in a position to size up the probabilities in connection with the next Australian XI., it is generally considered that E. S. White has an exceedingly good chance of being able to pack his bag for the trip. Ted White has been performing well with the ball this season, and the opinion is that he would be an exceedingly dangerous bowler on English wickets.

* * * * *

C. T. Webb, of Tamworth, who has been on a tour abroad to see England and the Coronation, is expected back this month.

* * * * *

Dr. Carlyle Hudson recently purchased the practice of the late Dr. Alan Yuille, O.B.E., at Dubbo, and has now settled down into his new environment.

Fred. Commins is now overseer on Mount Schank Station, in South Australia.

John Raleigh is on the land in the Gilgandra district with his brother Jeffrey. Conditions have not treated them too well this year, but they are still smiling.

The Sheaffes, W. R. and J. C., of Eurugabah Station, Booligal, are both prominent amateur riders, and take part in many local race meetings.

Dudley H. Roberts writes from Coolac :—

I was most interested to see in the May issue of "The Torch-Bearer" the thirty-five year old photograph of the Cricket Team which won for the School the G.P.S. Competition for the first time, I believe.

I wonder whether you can publish, from "The Torch-Bearer" of thirty-five years ago, the details of the scores in the match at North Sydney Oval, when that team defeated S.G.S. in the most exciting match I have ever seen, and which, I think, was probably the most meritorious win ever achieved by the School. It rained overnight, and S.G.S., winning the toss, sent us in on Friday morning on a sodden drying wicket; they soon had us back in the pavilion. By lunch time the wicket was pretty good, drying out quickly and rolling out well, and Grammar made a fairly decent score. We responded in the second innings with a good score; with five or six wickets down overnight, we continued batting on Saturday morning, J. F. Reid ("Little Jum") and O. G. (Tommy) Dent, if my memory serves me right, helping with a good stand to make a respectable total.

With two hours left to play and about 100 runs in the lead, Bob Hickson showed good judgment in closing the innings. The latter opened our bowling, and with his second ball took the wicket of Grammar's skipper; his fourth ball also clean bowled one of Grammar's best batsmen. Two for none was a good start, and in just about the hour we had won by 42 runs, with one hour's play to spare. We played all day Friday and to 1 p.m. Saturday when playing on a public ground, being, of course, before the days of Northbridge.

What a scene there was at the finish, and no one more happy and excited than our dear old "Chief," the late Mr. C. H. Hodges. I will be interested to see the figures of that match again; I remember Hickson took 5 for 25 in the first innings and 5 for 5 in the second. Gordon Black took the other five in the second innings, the two bowling unchanged. Hickson made top score in our first effort—I think we made 83 in the first innings—and he made 75 in the second knock. But everyone in the team did his "bit" to win that match. It was truly a glorious victory.

How's my memory? The figures were something like this: S.C.E.G.S., 83 and 8-213; S.G.S., 198 and 56.

[Actually, the figures were: S.C.E.G.S., 83 (Hickson 25, C. Allen 11, Bullock 9) and 325 (Hickson 85, Black 42, Sayers 55, C. Allen 70); S.G.S., 255 (Hickson 5-73, K. Allen 2-19, Kater 2-53) and 58 (Hickson 5-5, Black 4-46).—Ed., "T.-B."]

J. E. A. Williams has joined the Royal Air Force, and left for England by the "Orcades" on December 2nd, where he expects to be for about four years. Letters addressed to him C/o Bank of New South Wales, 29 Threadneedle Street, will be forwarded to him.

E. M. Pain, having also joined the R.A.F., left at the same time and on the same ship.

The Kerr brothers, Ken, and Bruce, are having a rough spin on their property at Tooraweenah, due to the presence of grasshoppers and the prevailing dry conditions. Nevertheless they have recently built a new and most comfortable home.

* * * * *

Reg. Row is still getting runs and wickets down Bringagee way. He is in charge of the back portion of the run at "Wyvern" Station, owned by an Old Boy, E. C. Newell, whose two sons, E. J. and P. T., are also actively engaged on the property. Hal. Tonkin, who made the fifth Old Boy on the station, left at Easter this year to take over a property of his own at Molong.

Three woolbuyers who regularly visit Brisbane together for the wool sales are Alan Copeland, Lindsay Bell and Gordon Vaughan. Just as regularly they foregather with Fergus Boundy and "Splinter" Shadforth in the northern capital, although they all represent different interests. Lindsay Bell has just returned from the Continent, and Alan Copeland leaves in May.

Geoff. Reading looks after the sporting interests of Old Boys from the headquarters of Spaldings in Brisbane.

Norman Heron, of Leura, still finds time for his golf in spite of the responsibility of a brand new daughter.

Old Boys in New Zealand will be interested to know that Dr. Keith Piper has left Tamworth, and is now practising over there.

It was interesting to see the number of Old Boys fathers introducing their small sons to the Serjeant-Major at the Fête. One wonders what the S.M.'s reactions are to putting his stick round the legs of father and son!

Jack Hyndes, in his spare moments from Metters Ltd., seems to have discovered the art of coaxing flowers from rocks in his home in Parriwi Road, Mosman.

James Robinson, of "Kimo" Station, Gundagai, is President of the Gundagai P. and A. Society, which sponsored the South-West Conference held in Gundagai last month. This conference was attended by three hundred graziers, representative of Yass to Albury and Narrandera.

Having work to do in Hillston recently, Adrian Curlewis became air-minded and chartered a 'plane for rapid transport. The 'plane turned out to be Stuart Campbell's seaplane, now converted, which figured so prominently when he was lost in New Guinea, as related above.

News comes from Scone that during last month the No. 3 Squadron of the R.A.A.F. was encamped on V. T. Hall's "Nandowra" property. We understand that this is the first time a complete unit of our Air Force has been drilled under these conditions. Two pageants were successfully staged during their stay.

John Ralston, after nearly twenty years of interest in surf life-saving, has entered on his third term as President of the Palm Beach Club. Incidentally, he, with Neville Conroy and Noel Walker, are life members of the Club.

George Eakin, who married recently, has now purchased a property near Currabubula, and has brought his bride to settle there.

John Massie has returned from his journey to the Americas, undertaken for the purpose of finding out just where Sir W. Raleigh discovered the Original Ancestor of that humble weed whose slow combustion, be it in pipe or in rice-paper, brings to us, both by day and also by night, so much solace and contentment when it is time for a relaxation such as this. Before setting out he was heard to say that, 10 to 1, it would be found in Virginia. His wanderings in other lands have not brought about any shrinkage of girth or stature; indeed, what time the heroic proportions of his figure dominate the scene, lesser men are constrained pityingly to look down upon the Doones of Doone Valley as a puny race of weaklings, while the shades of the Sons of Anak creep silently away to hide their diminished heads in shame. In London Town this modern Jan Ridd crossed the path of a certain Old Boy yeleft T. Honner, one cunning in the mysteries of electricity, who sits high in the councils of the London County Power Supply Company, the largest thunderbolt-forge in all Europe, and, as such, Jove's most serious competitor.

G. N. Wickner is now to be found at Southampton Air Port, England, where he has established an aeroplane factory.

John E. Kelynack has commenced practice as a solicitor at 28 Martin Place, Sydney.

Reg. Walker, of Adelaide, passed through Sydney recently on his way to the East. For some years he has spent periods of each year travelling through places known and unknown. To those Old Boys who lunched with him he told some very interesting stories of his many journeys.

Godfrey Hawker will leave for a trip to England and the Continent next March.

Major Lemaire reports that at the December Quarterly Luncheon of the Victorian branch held on the 2nd, the following were present :—T. J. West, V. D. Watson, G. C. Hawker, O. R. Charlton, L. H. Ballantyne, G. Barton Browne, P. C. Taylor, F. W. Lindsay, H. Mosman, D. H. Slade, J. M. Pitt, F. Ifould and L. H. Lemaire. A resolution was passed extending greetings to the Old Boys' Union and best wishes for 1938.

W. H. Sheppard writes from Adelaide :—

Reg. Walker, the globe-trotting member of our little group of Old Boys here, left with his wife on October 16 for a four and a half months' tour of Indo-China, Straits Settlements, India, Iraq and Palestine, and by the time he returns will have very little of the earth's surface left to visit, as he travelled 40,000 miles to and through South America last year, and on each of the four previous years spent four to five months wandering around the globe.

D'Arcy Ferguson, who has a fat lamb-raising property at "Paiyinka," Bordertown, writes to-day to say that conditions are in every way good in that district, but, like Cecil Mocatta, of Salisbury, who has similar interests, he would like to see the wool market looking brighter.

I met "Jerry" Fox a few days ago after many months, and found him looking very well, which fact he ascribed to plenty of work, extending his plantings at "Marybank."

As a matter of fact, apart from Wells and Walker, who are in Adelaide, I do not see much of other ex-Shore boys in South Australia, as most of them live either in the country or some distance from the city.

Jack Mehan, who recently transferred from Western Australia to manage the South Australian branch of the Shell Company, has quietly settled down to life in Adelaide and identified himself and his cheery grin with many local activities.

We are pleased to see that R. B. Stocks, who is one of the sons of B. J. Stocks & Sons, of Linden Hills, Cunningham, helped to produce the wheat which earned for the firm second place in the R.A.S. Southern Slopes Zone Wheat Yield Competition.

Sutherland	E. S. Shaw (re-elected)

Fergus Boundy, of Brisbane, writes :—

Dudley Shadforth, who is still with the Primary Producers in Brisbane, is the proud father of a daughter to be shortly christened Susan. Alan Mansfield is also married, and has a son.

Recently I was out in Longreach, where I met Dave Archer, Stan. Zlotkowski and Alpin Campbell, who is the manager of our branch in that centre. It was Diggers' Week in Longreach, and two old Shore boys in Harold Starky and L. I. Longwell—both Diggers—came over from Charleville to attend the festivities.

Geoff. Goldsmith is now a partner in a large firm of solicitors here, whilst Russell Cuppaidge is making a name for himself in the legal world, and has recently been elected President of the Constitutional Club.

"Bun" Tyrrell is prominent in motoring circles here.

OLD BOYS' CLUB NOTES.

A number of successful luncheons have been held during the term, to which younger members have invited various masters of the School as guests of honour.

A Christmas luncheon was held at the Club on December 8, when a large number of younger members attended. Mr. S. D. Angus had the matter in hand.

A party of boys from School were invited to the Club for billiards and ping-pong on December 2, and members and visitors spent an enjoyable evening.

The Committee has been preparing a prospectus of the Club for future use, and this should be available at an early date. It is felt that this will provide a means of introducing the Club to many who have not been fully aware of the Club's activities in the past.

Messrs. G. C. Turnbull and D. F. Roberts have been elected to the Board of Directors of School Clubs Ltd. for the ensuing year. Both have rendered invaluable service to the Club in past years.

Mr. A. S. Simpson has been very active in organising an Old Boys' group at the Club which contributes weekly to the Jubilee Fund of the School. He has been assisted by Mr. R. E. Ludowici, and the total to date which has been contributed is £33/7/-.
